Candidate

EX-PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT WHOSE FRIENDS TALK OF COMPROMISE CANDIDATE

Exactly four minutes was the duration of the opening session of the third day of the republican national convention. The immense crowd, nearly 14,000 people, who had fought their way into the hall after an hour or more in line, had only to go out again.

The only business done was the prayer and the motion of Watson of Indiana to be in recess until 4 p. m.

The ostensible reason for the recess was the fact that the credentials committee at work upon the contests affecting the personnel of the convention had only fairly begun its work.

that any statement that he has released his delegates is absolutely untrue. Some of the Roosevelt leaders, however, proceeded on the theory that Mr. Post's announcement was correct.

EX-GOV. POST

SAYS THAT ROOSEVELT RELEASED HIS DELEGATES

CHICAGO, June 20.—Former Gov. Regis Post of Porto Rico early today announced that Roosevelt had released his delegates but would remain in the race and this statement was accepted by a number of the Roosevelt leaders.

Conflicting reports came from the Roosevelt headquarters today that Col. Roosevelt had released his delegates from all obligation to vote for him. At 10.50 a. m. he issued a statement which was variously interpreted. The statement reads:

"The time has come when I feel that I must make certain statements not only to the honestly elected members of the republican national convention but to the rank and file of the party and the honest people of the entire nation. I went into this fight for certain great principles. At the moment I can only serve the principles by continuing to bear the personal responsibility which their advocacy has brought me."

CHICAGO, June 20.—The Roosevelt forces in the national convention having at last reached the point where a definite threat to bolt has been made, many of the panic-stricken delegates in the city turned desperately today to the task of stirring up sentiment for a compromise candidate. Justice Hughes of the supreme court and Gov. Hadley of Missouri were the names under consideration.

Practically all of the talk of compromise candidates came from the Roosevelt followers. There was evidence early today of a nearly complete disintegration of the Roosevelt forces. They appeared to be fighting desperately. The colonel's quarters were besieged by a mass of his followers and delegates seeking advice.

The conferences of last night had convinced the Roosevelt leaders that comparatively few of their delegates would desert the republican party. "It looks as though the bottom had dropped out," declared a member of the Roosevelt council today.

Serious Dissension
Serious dissension exists in the Roosevelt camp. Many of the leaders were frank in their declaration that the colonel had acted too hastily in a number of matters in coming to Chicago and in precipitating a bolt from the committee on credentials last night.

It also was stated that there was likely to be a material moderation of the Roosevelt program today. The more conservative members of the factions swept from their feet in the surging desire of the radicals last night to bolt seemed ready today to have the upper hand again. Col. Roosevelt at 1 o'clock this morning told his followers to make but one more stand in the convention, to fight the credentials committee report, and to be dedicated to hold their own convention.

This advice was received with a whoop by the radicals but with some trepidation by the conservatives.

Col. Roosevelt said this morning that he would issue a statement a little later in the day, probably giving new instructions to his "loyal followers."

The Roosevelt conservatives were a little fearful as to how the Taft people might receive the proposition of a compromise. With the Roosevelt movement apparently crumbling it was believed the Taft people would stilling up, although there was talk that some of the Taft people, satisfied with having defeated Roosevelt would be content to take a man who had some chance of bringing the factions together.

Francis Heney of California, a Roosevelt leader, said the fight against the "thieves" would be continued in the convention today.

"If the colonel bolts, will he be the progressive republican nominee?" Mr. Heney was asked.

"AB, out out the republican," he replied, "what we want is a 'progressive party.'"

Hadley To Fight
Gov. Hadley this morning said the fight in the regular convention would go ahead.

"They have got to purge that roll of the crooked delegates today or there will be no further treaty negotiations," was the declaration of Senator Dixon, manager of the Roosevelt campaign, after an early morning conference with his chief.

"It's all over unless the convention is purged. The other side is scared and I think that they will purge the roll by their own motion."

Senator Dixon was considerably excited as he talked of the tense situation.

"The future of the party," he declared emphatically, "depends upon the integrity of that convention today. We will not stand for the steam roller any longer."

"Treaty negotiations," referred to by Senator Dixon in his statement were being conducted all night, leaders of the state delegations which probably would not join in a bolt endeavoring to bring order out of the chaotic opposition by procuring some concessions from the Taft forces in control. Governor Deneen of Illinois, Gov. Hadley of Missouri and some of their delegates sought out conservative leaders on the Taft side to see if something could not be done to avoid a party split.

Although the real news of the situation was developing early, a mile away at the hotels, the crowds in and around the Coliseum were in a tense frame of mind. Chief of Police McCarty took personal charge of the police and his orders were so strict and so harshly enforced that even legitimate ticketholders, including newspapermen, were treated as if they were committing a crime in desiring to enter.

For a newspaper correspondent trying to cover alone the news happening at the hotels and also at the Coliseum the task was simply impossible. Correspondents were held in the crowds at the doors an hour or more while ticking telegraph instruments waited for them inside.

The various delegations began straggling in about 11.30, the crowds at the doors outside forcing them to enter singly. The band began playing popular airs at 11 o'clock and continued until the gavel fell. The music was varied today by a woman singer, who was heartily applauded. Scarcely any notice was taken of the arrival of Chairman Root who stood for a moment, the target for a battery of photographers. The gavel fell a few minutes after noon.

COL. ROOSEVELT

DENIES THAT HE RELEASED HIS DELEGATES

CHICAGO, June 20.—O. K. Davis, connected with the Roosevelt headquarters, emerged from the conference room at noon and said: "Col. Roosevelt authorizes me to say

The colonel's own statement was so interpreted.

O. K. Davis of the Roosevelt headquarters, however, said he was authorized by the colonel to say the statement as to the release of delegates was absolutely false.

A further conference of the Roosevelt forces was scheduled for 2 p. m. today.

After being in conference with Mr. Roosevelt for half an hour, Gov. Hadley said: "I will continue in the fight on the same lines as I have been following in the convention."

CALIFORNIA MEN

HAVE DECIDED TO WITHDRAW FROM CONVENTION

CHICAGO, June 20.—The California delegation met this morning and prepared a resolution announcing its withdrawal from the convention. The delegates said they would not be bound by the action of "a lot of thieves."

EX-SEN. FLINN

HAS RESIGNED FROM THE REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION

CHICAGO, June 20.—William Flinn, new national committeeman from Pennsylvania and one of Roosevelt's chief lieutenants in the nomination fight, confirmed early today a report that he had left the regular republican organization after the all-night conference with the Roosevelt leaders.

"I'm done with that committee," he said, "that's all there is to it."

SENATOR ROOT

TO BE PERMANENT CHAIRMAN OF CONVENTION

CHICAGO, June 20.—The committee on permanent organization this morning voted to make the temporary organization permanent. This would continue Senator Root as presiding officer and continue all the temporary officials throughout the convention.

The motion to make the temporary organization permanent was made by Governor Pennock of Delaware, whereupon Ira Copley of Illinois moved to substitute, asking that the committee defer action until the report of the committee on credentials had been received and acted on by the convention.

Debate was mild and the Copley motion was lost 7 to 22.

TAFT OPPOSED

HE WILL NOT AGREE TO COMPROMISE CANDIDATE

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Callers at the White house today who could get President Taft to discuss politics said that they were convinced that the president had no thought of agreeing to a compromise candidate at the republican national convention. According to friends who saw him today, Mr. Taft is certain that he will be renominated in Chicago and believes that Col. Roosevelt is beaten. One member of the cabinet who was an early caller said President Taft had no idea of agreeing to another man, and other callers supported that statement.

PRESIDENT TAFT

REFUSES TO RELEASE HIS DELEGATES

WASHINGTON, June 20.—A report from Chicago reached the White House today saying that President Taft had authorized Senator Crane to release the Taft delegates to the national convention following Col. Roosevelt's action in releasing his. Pres. Taft denied the report and after he talked with Senator Crane over the long distance telephone, White House officials announced that Senator Crane had denied making any such statement.

NEW RULES

TO BE DRAWN UP BY THE COMMITTEE

CHICAGO, June 20.—As a result of the position in which the national committee found itself on the opening of the convention the rules committee today decided to draw up a set of rules to govern the procedure of that committee in the future. The committee adjourned till later in the day to permit Pres. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university to put the new rules into proper parliamentary language.

Dancing tonight, Whitlow Dale.

MAY RETURN TO WORK

CLINTON, June 20.—A mass meeting of striking weavers at the Lancaster plough mills was called today by the Industrial Workers of the World leaders for tomorrow morning. A vote will be taken on the question of returning to work, many of the strikers being said to favor such action.

"THE TEST OF LOYALTY" GIVEN FINE PRESENTATION

By Pupils of St. Patrick's Boys'
Academy Before Large Audience

The pupils of St. Patrick's boys' academy, who for the past thirteen years have annually entertained with the production of plays and always secured great success, appeared at the Academy of Music yesterday afternoon and last evening, and gave "The Test of Loyalty," a comedy in three acts, in a manner that would do credit to professional actors. At each performance the theatre was crowded to the doors and the applause accorded the members of the company proved that the piece was greatly enjoyed.

The production was under the direction of the Navenian Brothers, with Bro. Osmund, superior of the school, in charge. Charles D. Staden acted as musical director of the sanctuary choir, John J. McNabb as dramatic supervisor, and William P. McCarthy, pianist.

The performance in the afternoon was given for the children and incidentally served as a dress rehearsal for the evening entertainment. In the evening the clergy of the parish and the parents and friends of the young actors filled the house to overflowing, and all were well repaid for they saw one of the best amateur productions ever given in Lowell.

The play itself was very interesting, and showed how a high school freshman was unjustly accused of being a thief and as he was the most important man on the football team he declined to play in the "big game" until he could vindicate himself. His fellow players pleaded with him and he was thinking over the affair when the real thief was located and the piece was brought to a happy and pleasing conclusion. The production called for several heavy parts which were capably handled.

The members of the sanctuary choir gave selections of a high order, and the young choristers, were the recipients of considerable applause and commendation. The entire program was greatly enjoyed and the remarkable success scored reflects great credit on the brothers, directors, stage men, performers and all concerned.

The cast of characters was as follows:

Harry Templeton—A freshman, John P. Randall
Wm. Thornton—Templeton's friend, Eugene J. Dean
Jack Morrell—Football coach, Henry J. Connolly
James Clarke—A reckless broker's son, William P. McCarthy

FINE CONCERT

GIVEN AT THE VESPER-COUNTRY CLUB

A very enjoyable concert was given at the Vesper Country club last night by the recently organized Vesper Musical club. The affair was largely attended, and the program was rendered in such a charming manner that each number brought forth considerable applause.

Mr. Albert E. Brown, the well known baritone, was engaged for the occasion and he charmed his audience with his several artistically rendered vocal selections. The club was in charge of Prof. William P. Hovey, and the members are as follows: Arthur Spalding, George Spalding, Luther Faulkner, Charles Hedrick, Harry Tolland, James H. Leighton, Harry Whiting, Mantred Gulline, Frank Bean, Richmond Fletcher and Mr. Wisner.

Everybody's Doing It

A very sensible and commendable wave of economy seems to have struck this city. Almost everybody is forming or joining a Larkin Club-of-Ten and buying their Soaps, Spices, Teas, Notions, Toilet and Pharmaceutical Preparations, and other household supplies direct from Larkin Co. This enables them to get just twice as much for their money as they would get at the store, either in the form of a double quantity of household supplies for the same money, or by taking the saving in the form of some handsome Premium, of which there are 1000 to choose from. The club meetings are made the occasion of a "good time for all" and that is one of the reasons this kind of club is so very popular. If you certainly should get busy and form a Larkin Club-of-Ten. The extra rewards given by Larkin Co. to anyone conducting such a club, make it well worth your time to do so—besides the money you will save for yourself and your neighbors. Write Larkin Co. today. Ask them for their large Catalog-R-25. This describes in full their Club-of-Ten plan and their Factory-to-Family method of dealing.

POLICE ON GUARD AT THIS WEDDING

Woman Threatened to Stop Marriage

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 20.—E. Mark Sullivan, assistant United States district attorney of Boston, was married here yesterday in St. Patrick's church, which was guarded by a cordon of police against a Mrs. Annie Mahoney of Boston, who it was announced had threatened to break up his wedding to Miss Catherine Hayes, a society girl.

On account of her repeated threats, which the trouble she already had created indicated she would carry out, Chief of Police M. L. Cadin stationed a cordon of police about the church. Mrs. Mahoney, if she had appeared, would have been prevented from entering the church or making any disturbance.

For the past week Mrs. Mahoney has been in town seeking, it is said, to postpone the wedding.

She has sought to have Mr. Sullivan arrested on a charge of larceny of a set of opal cuff buttons. While trying for a warrant she also declared that Sullivan had charged excessive fees for his services as attorney for her husband.

The whole city has been talking about the disturbances Mrs. Mahoney has succeeded in creating. Mrs. Sullivan, who comes from the Hayes family, prominent in social circles here, is extremely popular, and indignation ran high.

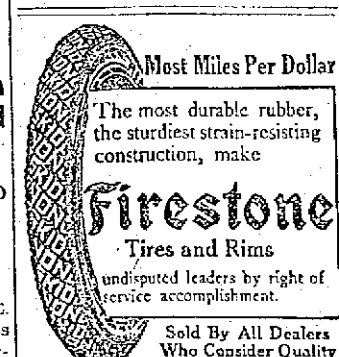

Failing in her attempts to have Sullivan arrested, Mrs. Mahoney then called on Miss Hayes at the Hayes home. She tried, it is declared, to induce Miss Hayes to break off the marriage to Mr. Sullivan. Her arguments became so violent that Miss Hayes had Mrs. Mahoney forcibly ejected from the house. Mrs. Mahoney immediately tried to have Miss Hayes arrested, charged with assault, but was again unable to support her charges.

She then announced that she would get into the church and stop the ceremony. To prevent any such scene police protection was asked and granted.

FOUR LOWELL BOYS GRADUATE

Commencement Exercises Held at Holy Cross Today

WORCESTER, June 20.—Governor Aram J. Pothier of Rhode Island was a recipient of an honorary degree at the annual commencement exercises of Holy Cross college today. The degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on Governor Pothier, Rev. William Fitzpatrick of Milton, James B. Carroll of Springfield and David I. Walsh of Fitchburg.

Other honorary degrees awarded were: Master of Arts, Rev. Thomas J. Preston, Thompsonville, Conn.; Dr. Edward Buckley, St. Paul, Minn.; Michael J. Costello, Scranton, Pa.; Walter H. Kennedy, Worcester; Thomas J. Paberty, Boston; John J. Stevens, Worcester; and Nicholas B. Decker, Oyster Bay, N. Y.

Master of Science, Francis X. Moore, Oyster Bay, N. Y.

The Lowell Graduates

Quite a number of Lowell people attended the commencement exercises of Holy Cross college at Worcester today. They were the relatives and friends of the Lowell boys who are students there, among the graduates being Patrick Joseph Reynolds, Cornelius O'Neill, John Gillick and Edward Hasset. These boys have all distinguished themselves as students, some in one direction some in another. By their work they have reflected credit upon their city; and their families may well be proud of them. A friend of Patrick Joseph Reynolds speaking of his work as a student said: "Young Reynolds, who is a son of Michael Reynolds of Chapel street, is a very bright young man. A graduate of the Edison grammar and the Lowell High school, he entered Holy Cross college at Worcester four years ago. In college he has been prominently identified with the various societies and was especially strong in athletics of which in his senior year, he was chosen assistant manager. He graduates with high honors having received honorable mention in Latin and mathematics, while winning a medal in organic chemistry and another in biology. He will probably enter Harvard medical school in the fall. Altogether he is a very promising young man, but in saying this much of Mr. Reynolds I do not at all disparage any of the other boys who are all very bright, able and successful students."

PATRICK J. REYNOLDS.

BURGLARS BUSY

SILVERWARE WORTH $1200 WAS TAKEN FROM HOUSE

PITTSFIELD, June 20.—Wayside, the country residence of Mrs. William H. Bradford, was entered by burglars yesterday morning and silverware valued at $1200 was stolen from the dining room. The burglars entered through a window on the ground floor at the rear of the house. All the silver service owned by Mrs. Bradford and some articles belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Fairfax and their family were taken. The room was thoroughly ransacked. There appeared to be no attempt to enter other parts of the residence. Burned matches were found on the floor, which indicated that the thieves were poorly equipped and without flash lamps. The robbery was discovered when the servants appeared yesterday morning. Police officers in Lenox, Lee and Pittsfield were notified. Wayside is about a mile and a half north of Lenox on the Pittsfield highway.

APPEARANCES VS. FACTS

Almost daily you see advertised special sales of articles at prices which invite comparison. How many people are capable of comparing prices, cut or otherwise? A few, perhaps. What does the price mean concealed by some high sounding name in packages designed to be sold at cut prices? Ask for the articles you need, get it in lbs., qts., etc., and be assured by the standard maintained by stores where you purchase it. Then the prices will speak for themselves. This is the second of three lists of Household Necessaries which we offer for your inspection. One appeared Wednesday, the other comes tomorrow in these columns. UNLICENSED DOGS CAUSED TROUBLE

Owners Were Fined in Police Court

The city clerk, assisted by the police department, is making a strenuous effort to corral all dogs that are not licensed and also to punish the owners for the non-payment of license. This morning there were two defendants before the court and in both cases fines were imposed.

Frank J. Hartson was fined $4 and Rose Moran was fined $3. In the Moran case the woman claimed that the dog did not belong to her but that she had found it and she could not keep the animal away from the house. Frank J. Riley, a blind man, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Patrolman George Abbott. The man, although unfortunate owing to his affliction, had been addicted to drink and has imposed on many persons and many complaints have been made against him. He was sent to the state farm.

TRIAL RESUMED OF HIRST-GAGE CASE

It May Go to Jury This Afternoon

The case of Benjamin Hirst vs. Martina Gage and that of Vida S. Walker vs. the same, an action of tort which was started in superior court a few days ago, was resumed this morning before Judge Stevens. The defense is now on and this afternoon several witnesses are to be called in rebuttal. It is expected the case will go to the jury late this afternoon.

In this case it is alleged that the late Benjamin Hirst was run over by an ice wagon owned by the defendant. The accident, it is claimed, occurred in Perkins street, and in the plaintiff's declaration it is also alleged that Mr. Hirst died some three months after the accident as a result of the injuries. Vida S. Walker is the administratrix of the estate and she seeks to recover for the suffering and death of Mr. Hirst.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Joseph H. Heathcock and Miss Bertha A. Bond were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bond, 11 Hastings street, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The ceremony took place in the presence of many friends and relatives, including a number from Springfield, Lynn, Boston, Lawrence, Hartford, Conn., and Leominster. Rev. Selden W. Cummings, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated. The bride wore a gown of white duchesse satin and also a veil. She carried white roses. The bridegroom, Miss Sadie MacDonald, wore pink mesaline with chiffon trimming and carried pink roses. The best man was Mr. William H. Heathcock, a brother of the bridegroom. Wedding music was played by Miss Clara Heathcock, a sister of the bridegroom. A reception followed the wedding, from 5 to 8 o'clock.

WALKER—WADE

Mr. Vernon Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walker of 12 Melhusen street, and Miss Mae Van Schoick Wade, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Russell Wade of 55 Eighteenth street, were united in marriage at 6:30 last night, at the home of the bride's mother, by Rev. George P. Kennard of the First Trinitarian Congregational church.

The double ring ceremony was used. The wedding march was played by Miss Jessie Fisher.

The bride wore a gown of white duchesse satin, trimmed with Point de Venise lace and a filmy veil caught up with lilacs of the valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of these dainty flowers.

Both the bride and bridegroom were unattended. The ushers were: Mr. George L. Walker, a brother of the bridegroom; Mr. William Watson Denault, a brother-in-law of the bride, and Mr. Thomas Elliott Benner and Mr. E. Austin Benner, her nephews, and Mr. Alvah J. Baxter.

The young couple left in a shower of confetti, for their wedding tour. On their return they will make their home at 42 Greenfield street, Lawrence. They will be at home to their friends after Sept. 1.

BROWN—SUTCLIFFE

Mr. James T. Brown and Miss Jennie Sutcliffe were united in marriage Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage of the Gorham Street Methodist church. Mr. J. Edward Leith played the Lo-hengrin bridal chorus as the wedding party entered the church and passed through the main aisle. The bride, who was handsomely dressed in white tulle with valenciennes trimmings and carried sweet peas, was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Joseph Sutcliffe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Nathaniel W. Matthews, pastor of the church. The bridegroom was Miss Sarah A. Potter, who wore lemon colored silk and carried yellow marguerites. The best man was Mr. John Brown, a brother of the bridegroom. Following the ceremony the Mendelssohn wedding march was played by Mr. Leith, as the wedding party left the church. The ushers were Sam Asquith, N. W. Matthews, Jr., Andrew Brown and Willie Lobbs.

RICHARDSON—RAMSAY

Mr. Leon Williams Richardson and Miss Jennie Florence Ramsay were united in marriage last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Ramsay, 38 Gates street, in the presence of relatives and immediate friends. The affair was a pretty home wedding in its best sense. The ceremony took place at 7 o'clock. Rev. Robert Walker, of Concord, performing the double ring service. The wedding music was played by Miss Madeline Small of Saugus. The bride was handsomely gowned in white crepe de chine and wore a veil. She carried a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley. Miss Amy G. Bent was the bridesmaid. She wore white over pink and carried pink sweet peas. The best man was Mr. Carl E. Herrick of Worcester.

MURPHY—LAWSON

Miss Elizabeth Murphy and Mr. Arthur Lawson were united in marriage at a nuptial mass yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at the parochial residence of the Immaculate Conception church, by Rev. Lawrence Tighe, O. M. I. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Christine Murphy, of Cambridge. Thomas J. Burns acted as best man. Master Frederick Loughran was the page. The bride was charmingly attired in white embroidered tulle with tulle veil, caught with lilacs of the valley, and carried a shower bouquet of blue mesaline with pink chiffon overdress trimmed with cluny lace, carrying a large bouquet of pink Killarney roses. After the ceremony, the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, 407 High street, where a wedding breakfast was served.

ROUX—HARTNETT

Yesterday morning at a nuptial mass celebrated at 7 o'clock at Notre Dame de Lourdes church by Rev. Fr. Lamotte, O. M. I. Miss Marie Rose Roux and Mr. John Hartnett were united in marriage. The witnesses were Mr. William Hartnett and Miss Claire Roux. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride where a dainty breakfast was served. They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

SCOTT—DOWNS

Mr. William H. Scott and Miss Isabelle Downs were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride, 11 Hazelton street, Rev. J. R. Harris officiating. The couple were the recipients of numerous and beautiful wedding gifts, and left on an early evening train for Wiscasset, Me., where

BARRETT AND DONAHUE CLASH AT MUNICIPAL COUNCIL MEETING THE STILES INQUIRY RESUMED

The gallery was crowded and all seats on the floor of the chamber were taken when the hearing on the charges brought by Alderman Barrett against City Treasurer Stiles was resumed. The hearing had its spirited moments and at one time Alderman Barrett leaped to his feet and asked the protection due him as a member of the municipal council and the mayor replied that the alderman had the remedy in his own hands. "You can refuse to answer the questions, if you so desire," said the mayor. The alderman declared that he was not on trial and that he would not answer any or no. "I want to answer in my own way as I have a right to do," he said. The questions referred to were being asked by D. J. Donahue, counsel for City Treasurer Stiles. There was a great deal of time taken up in the discussion of the Nesmith fund which, by agreement at the beginning was supposed to be eliminated entirely from the charges. Mr. Donahue was looking for proof to every statement and aiming his words at Alderman Barrett. "If I was trying to rob a man of his character I think I would know what I was talking about."

It looked at one stage of the game as if the chamber might develop into a small edition of the Chicago convention and Mayor O'Donnell called the attention of Messrs. Donahue and Barrett to the fact that the occasion did not call for indulgence in personalities or for acrimonious statements of any kind. He told them to stick to the issue.

George M. Rex, the expert accountant who examined the financial books of the city and upon whose report Alderman Barrett based, in part, his charges, was present at the meeting having been summoned by a vote of the council, and he and Lawyer Donahue matched intellects during the course of the proceedings.

The Hearing
Mayor O'Donnell called to order at 10:40 o'clock and before proceeding to the business of the day several minor petitions were properly referred.

The hearing was then resumed, and D. J. Donahue, counsel for the defendant, proceeded to cross-examine Alderman Barrett. Mr. Donahue asked Mr. Barrett what he understood was the duty of the assessors of Lowell prior to 1912 in placing loans. Mr. Barrett answered that in order to make the loan valid the mayor would have to sign it.

Mr. Donahue: "Did you know that the loan of $100,000 that we were discussing here the other day was signed by Mayor Meehan?"

"I suppose he signed it," answered Mr. Barrett. Mr. Barrett said he protested against the mayor signing the order or the issuance of the loan.

Mr. Barrett reminded Mr. Donahue that he was not under cross examination.

"I think you are, and I will ask the mayor for a ruling in the matter," said Mr. Donahue.

Mayor O'Donnell, addressing Alderman Barrett, said that Mr. Donahue was attempting only to show that the order in question was properly signed by the proper officials of last year.

"That loan has cost the city of Lowell $200 more than it should have," said Mr. Barrett.

Mr. Barrett accused Mr. Donahue of attempting to defame the main issue and Mr. Donahue insisted that the alderman thought too highly of his own judgment.

Mr. Donahue asked Mr. Barrett to answer yes or no, and the alderman said: "I am not on trial here and I will not answer yes or no. I am only trying to get at the truth."

"That is what I am trying to get at," said Mr. Donahue.

"You are going a funny way about it," said Mr. Barrett.

"It looks as if you were defaming the issue," retorted Mr. Donahue.

"Did you make any investigation at the rate of interest on loans in 1909?" asked Mr. Donahue.

"Certainly I didn't. What right had I to do so. I was not a member of the city council at that time," said Mr. Barrett.

"Then why do you charge a man with doing wrong in a year that you knew nothing about?"

"My charges are all consistent," said Mr. Barrett. "I said that the two years 1909 and 1911 were the only two years that temporary loans were made at a reasonable rate of interest," continued the alderman.

He said he made no charges against the treasurer in 1909 and 1911.

City Solicitor Intervenes
City Solicitor Hennessy interposed with the statement that he believed the alderman and counselor were at cross purposes. "The alderman," said Mr. Hennessy, "says that last year he investigated not only the loans of last year but of previous years, including 1909, while the counselor holds to the question: 'Did you examine or investigate the loans of 1909 in that year?'"

Mr. Donahue: "Now let me try and clear the cobwebs from any."

"I object, if you please, your honor," said Mr. Hennessy, "and—"

"Now, gentlemen," interposed the mayor, "there is no reason why you should depart from the issue. There is no call for personalities or side thrusts."

Previous Loans
Mr. Donahue went back to loans of years previous to 1909, and Mr. Barrett showed himself familiar with the rates of interest prevailing in the years in question, getting his information, he said, from the Boston News Bureau.

"You say the money market varies from day to day," said Mr. Donahue. "I don't say anything of the kind," retorted Mr. Barrett.

Barrett Protests
"I do not think that I am being fairly treated by the chairman," said Alderman Barrett.

Barrett. "I am not a witness here and as far as that is concerned, I do not think Mr. Donahue has any case here," he said.

"I protest to the way that this hearing is being carried on and I want my rights, Mr. Chairman, as a member of the city council. I am tired of this smooth suave way of doing things when my rights as a member of this council are being abused."

Mayor O'Donnell replied that when charges were made they should be substantiated. "You can refuse to answer if you care to, Mr. Alderman," said the mayor. "You have a right to your opinion, but it is necessary that you should prove statements."

Mr. Barrett said he refused to answer any further questions relative to loans.

"Do I understand that you refuse to answer any more of my questions?" asked Mr. Donahue.

"I do, along the lines that you have been proceeding," replied Mr. Barrett.

"Very well," replied Mr. Donahue.

Expert Accountant Rex
George M. Rex, the expert accountant who examined the financial books of the city, was called by City Solicitor Hennessy.

Mr. Rex said that according to the auditor's books the loan balances on Dec. 31, 1911, amounted to $126,000; the cash balance was $154,000 and the outstanding debt something over $3,000,000.

"I figure," said Mr. Rex, replying to Mr. Hennessy, "that the $49,000 Huntington hall money, so-called, was not included in the cash balance of $154,000. How did you come to know that there was such a thing as the Nesmith fund?" asked Alderman Barrett.

"I found it in the reports," said Mr. Rex. "You thought before you made your examination that the fund was there?"

"I certainly did."

"Carrying the fund along in the books gave the people a false impression," said Mr. Barrett.

"If I was a taxpayer interested in the affairs of the city and if I were looking over the books and came across the fund on the records and in the reports I would accept it as evidence that the fund was still in existence," said Mr. Rex.

"There are no charges against the present city treasurer relative to the Nesmith or Tyler funds," said Alderman Barrett.

"You are an accountant, are you not, Mr. Rex?" said Mr. Donahue.

"Yes."

"Have you ever audited the books of any other Massachusetts city?"

"No, sir, but I have examined the books of cities in other states."

"In making up your amounts what books did you find in the treasurer's office?" asked Mr. Donahue.

"Cash book, assessment books, sinking fund books, card accounts, etc.," said Mr. Rex.

"What is the difference between a bookkeeper and an accountant?" asked Mr. Donahue.

"A bookkeeper goes along recording things as they come along without using his brains, while an accountant lays out plans and devises schemes," said Mr. Rex.

Relative to blots on books in the treasurer's office, Mr. Rex said it would require a microscopic examination to determine if there were figures beneath the blots. As to reinserted figures there was no way of ascertaining if they were the correct figures.

"Did you know that the books were any copies?" asked Mr. Donahue.

"What books?"

"The books with the big blots on them."

"I did not understand that they were copies. I understood they were the original books."

"Did you go into the assessors' office to find out if there were original copies there?"

"I went to the assessors' office sev-

FOUR WERE INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

The Rev. Dr. Chalmers of Manchester, N. H., Was Driving the Machine

A rather serious accident occurred near the windmill on the Pawtucket boulevard about five o'clock this morning when a Regal car owned and operated by Rev. Dr. Thomas Chalmers, pastor of the First Congregational church of Manchester, N. H., turned turtle and the occupants of the car were thrown out.

While the cause of the accident is unknown, it is known that the machine had no chains and the accident was either due to skidding or the collapse of one of the wheels.

Dr. Chalmers was hurried to the Lowell General hospital where upon examination it was found that he was suffering from a fracture of several ribs and probably internal injuries. Mrs. Jennie Fontaine, matron at the Pembroke sanitarium and her son, Henry, aged three years, escaped with slight bruises, but the other occupant of the car, Helen Connors, a maid at the sanitarium, had her right wrist broken.

The injured were taken in the ambulance to the Lowell General hospital, where they received attendance.

Left Early This Morning

Rev. Dr. Chalmers is well known throughout the New England states and was very active in protesting against betting at Rockingham park in Salem, N. H. Last night he presented the diplomas to the graduates of the Manchester high school and arose early this morning in order to go to his summer home at Hyannisport, Mass.

The clergyman, accompanied by Mrs. Fontaine and her son and Miss Connors, left the Queen City shortly after four o'clock and were traveling along the boulevard at a fair rate of speed when all of a sudden the machine turned turtle. None of the occupants of the car is able to realize how the accident happened, but the condition of the wheels would signify that the machine either skidded or one of the rear wheels collapsed. Inasmuch as the car is of the underslung pattern and is low to the ground it is difficult to learn how it overturned.

Employees of the water works department were the first to arrive on the spot and the ambulance was telephoned for and the occupants of the machine were taken to the hospital.

There is always a possibility of clerical errors.

"Why didn't you compare the treasurer's books with the assessors' books?"

"It would have been impossible to determine if they agreed," said Mr. Rex.

Mr. Donahue intimated that Mr. Rex was trying to evade straight answers, and Mr. Rex said: "That may be because your mind is prejudiced."

Mr. Rex finally admitted that "probably" the figures on the treasurer's books were the same as on the assessors' books.

"What did you suppose you were examining in the treasurer's office; the correct accounts of the city?" asked Alderman Barrett.

"I certainly did, and I found blots that could not be penetrated to the point of ascertaining what figures were beneath."

"We are not to understand," said the mayor, "that you mean to convey the impression that the treasurer gave you the wrong books?"

"No, indeed," said Mr. Rex. "I do not mean to infer anything of the kind."

"Did you make any estimation when the Nesmith fund was given to the city?" asked Mr. Donahue.

"Yes, in September, 1891."

"What became of that fund?"

"I examined the books for 1911 and I found there was a fund known as the Nesmith fund set up as a liability against the city. I did not find that anything had been charged up against it in 1911."

"If you'll examine the books of this city back for several years you will find that we had some of the most wonderful bookkeeping of any city in this commonwealth. We paid 6 per cent. interest when other cities were paying less than five," said Alderman Cummings.

At 12:30 the hearing was adjourned to 2 p. m.

REAL ESTATE MEN MEET
LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 20.—An interesting event today in the convention of the National Association of Real Estate Exchanges in session here was the presentation to the convention of a carved mast of wood from a table in Captain Sigab's cabin on the battleship Maine. It was presented by J. S. Head of Havana.

The annual picnic of the Sacred Heart parish will be held at the Genoa camp on July 27.

A man, whose name is not known, met with an injury to his head while at work at the Tremont & Suffolk mills about 1:30 o'clock this morning. He was taken to the Lowell hospital where he received treatment.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES AT THE HOWE SCHOOL

Address to the Graduates Delivered by Rev. Edmund J. Cornell, O. M. I.

The commencement exercises of the class of 1912 of the Howe school, Billerica, were held in the town hall in the Centre at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Howe school is one of the oldest in this vicinity, having been established in 1852. In former years the graduation exercises were held in the school, but as the classes are getting larger each year, recently the town hall has been the scene of the festivities.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion, streamers of the class colors, black and gold, and a preponderance of potted plants and ferns being artistically arranged around the room. The stage was decked with a gorgeous array of grocery and cut flowers, which added much to the decorative feature.

Long before the announced time for the starting of the exercises the hall was filled with people, including the parents, relatives and friends of the graduates and many former pupils of the school. The program was one of the best ever given by a graduating class and the speakers, who congratulated the graduates and gave excellent advice to them were attentively listened to and their remarks were very interesting.

Rev. Lyman V. Rutledge offered prayer, and the address of the day was delivered by Rev. Edmund J. Cornell, O. M. I., pastor of St. Andrew's church, North Billerica. Mr. Cornell is an eloquent speaker and his remarks, which were along congratulatory lines, made a great impression upon his hearers. He told the young graduates that they were about to start on another journey, and to always remember the advice that they received while studying within the walls of the old Howe school. He congratulated the teachers of the school on their work in not only preparing the children for the future, educationally, but also for the training they gave that made possible the magnificent success of the day's entertainment.

The opening number on the program was an excellent musical overture by Hubbard's orchestra of Lowell. Prayer was then offered by Rev. Lyman V. Rutledge, after which the following program was carried out:

Essay, "The Story of the Newspaper," Emma Butler Ketchen

Second Honor, "Grenfell of the Labrador," Hildegard Lois Perry

Music, Orchestra. First Honor, "Development of the Modes of Travel," Marjory Spiller

Prophecy and Presentations, Marlon Frances Kohlrausch

Conferring of Diplomas, Frederic S. Clark

For the Trustees, J. Nelson Parker, President

Address, Rev. Edmund J. Cornell, O. M. I.

Music, Hubbard's Orchestra.

The class motto is "Nulla Secundus," never second. After the presentation of the diplomas by Frederic S. Clark, the recipients were greatly applauded. The members of the graduating class, who received the certificates of graduation are: Marjory Spiller, Hildegard Lois Perry, S. Madeline Earle, Emma Butler Ketchen, Marlon Frances Kohlrausch, Grace D. Balmforth, Lena Mabel Dutton, Clarence Elmore McElman.

AN IMPRESSIVE SERVICE

The Funeral of Late Mrs. Josephine Quigley

All roads at No. Chelmsford yesterday led to the little Catholic church in Middlesex street, where at 9 o'clock solemn requiem services were held for the repose of the soul of the late Mrs. Josephine McCabe Quigley, whose untimely and unexpected death on Monday threw the entire village into deepest sorrow. Prior to the hour of the funeral the pretty home of the deceased in Princeton street was crowded with mourning friends, while a wealth of floral tributes which enveloped the casket bore mute but fragrant testimony to the love and esteem in which she was held by all. The deceased was one of North Chelmsford's best known and best liked young women, and no church or social gathering was complete without her jovial presence. Possessed of musical talent which had been carefully cultivated she was ever in demand at the village entertainments and was ever at the command of her friends in this respect. For thirteen years she had been organist and director of the choir at St. John's church and took a deep and active interest in all parish affairs. She was kindly, the soul of amiability, deeply religious and charitable, an exemplary type of Christian womanhood. Her death is particularly distressing by reason of the fact that only one year ago her friends assembled at the same edifice to offer their prayers for her future happiness upon the occasion of her marriage, and the heartfelt sympathy of a host of friends goes forth to her bereaved husband. In the gathering that crowded the church to the doors were friends from Lowell, Boston, Fitchburg, Ayer, Grantville and Wilton N. H. The ushers at the house and church were Messrs. John E. Hogan and John J. Curry, while the casket was borne by Messrs. James P. Dunnigan, James B. McQuaid, Mark H. McGee and Patrick S. Ward.

Solemn high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Edmund T. Schofield, pastor of St. John's church as celebrant assisted by Rev. John J. Shaw of St. Michael's church, Lowell, deacon and Rev. Michael Doherty, subdeacon. Assisting at the services were representatives of the different societies of which the deceased was a member. The choir was augmented for the occasion by singers from all of the Catholic church choirs of Lowell and was under the direction of Commissioner James E. Donnelly of Lowell. Mrs. Josephine McKeeney of St. Peter's church, presiding at the organ. The Gregorian mass was sung. At the offertory, "Pie Jesu" was rendered by Miss Alice B. Murphy of St. Patrick's choir. After the elevation, "O Meritum Passionis" was rendered by Mr. William L. Gookin of the Immaculate Conception choir and at the conclusion of mass Commissioner Donnelly sang the "De Profundis" assisted by the full choir. At the conclusion of the church service the lengthy funeral cortege proceeded to the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, Lowell, where the remains were tenderly consigned to their final resting place. The interment was in charge of undertakers James B. O'Donnell and Sons.

The members of the sodality of which she was a member will receive communion in a body at the 7:30 mass Sunday morning for the repose of her soul. The society was represented by a delegation of the officers, Misses Bella Valentine, Loretta Ward, Veronica Lowe, Agnes O'Connell, Mrs. Michael Walsh and Mrs. John Finnegan. Among the floral tributes were: mammoth pillow, inscribed "Beloved Wife," husband; wreath on base, inscribed "At Rest," Mrs. McCabe and Angie McCabe, mother and sister; basket of flowers, inscribed "Aunt Josie," Garvey family; pillow, inscribed "Aunt Josie," Gertrude and Helen Quigley; wreath, inscribed "Aunt Josie," Marie and Paul O'Donnell; spray, inscribed "Aunt Josie," Josephine and Leo McEnaney, standing cross on base, inscribed "Josie," James P. Quigley; wreath on base, employees Chelmsford Foundry Co.; wreath, inscribed "Schoolmate," members of N. C. H. S. Alumni; standing cross on base, inscribed "At Rest," Mr. and Mrs. John Walsh and family; wreath, inscribed "Josie," Miss Lottie Kendrick; wreath, Misses Minnie and Alice McManimon; wreath of roses and galax leaves, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Small and Mrs. T. E. Allen; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. James P. O'Donnell; spray of sweetpeas and ferns, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. O'Donnell; spray of carnations and palms, Misses Veronica and Charlotte Lowe; spray of carnations, William and Mary Tobin; spray of marguerites, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Scribner and family; spray of sweetpeas, Miss Genevieve A. Roarke; pillow of sweetpeas, Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Ripley; spray of white carnations, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Whiddon; spray of red roses and ferns, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ingham; spray, William J. Collins; spray of pink sweetpeas, Mr. and Mrs. George Brotherton; spray of pink carnations, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Roarke; spray, Mr. and Mrs. G. Audain; spray of sweetpeas, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pratt; spray of white carnations and ferns, friends from Gilbride's store; spiritual bouquet, members of sodality of St. John's church. The grave was lined with ferns, carnations and peonies at the request of Maurice and Miss Alice O'Donnell.

SEVERAL EVENTS

SCHEDULED FOR LONGMEADOW GOLF CLUB

The Longmeadow Golf club has an excellent program of golf fixtures to be held during the present season. The first contest was held last Saturday, but there are many more important events to follow during the season.

The next meet will be on June 20th, when the first qualification for the "President's Cup" will be held. This has always proved to be an important occasion and the golfers turn out in large numbers to participate in this event.

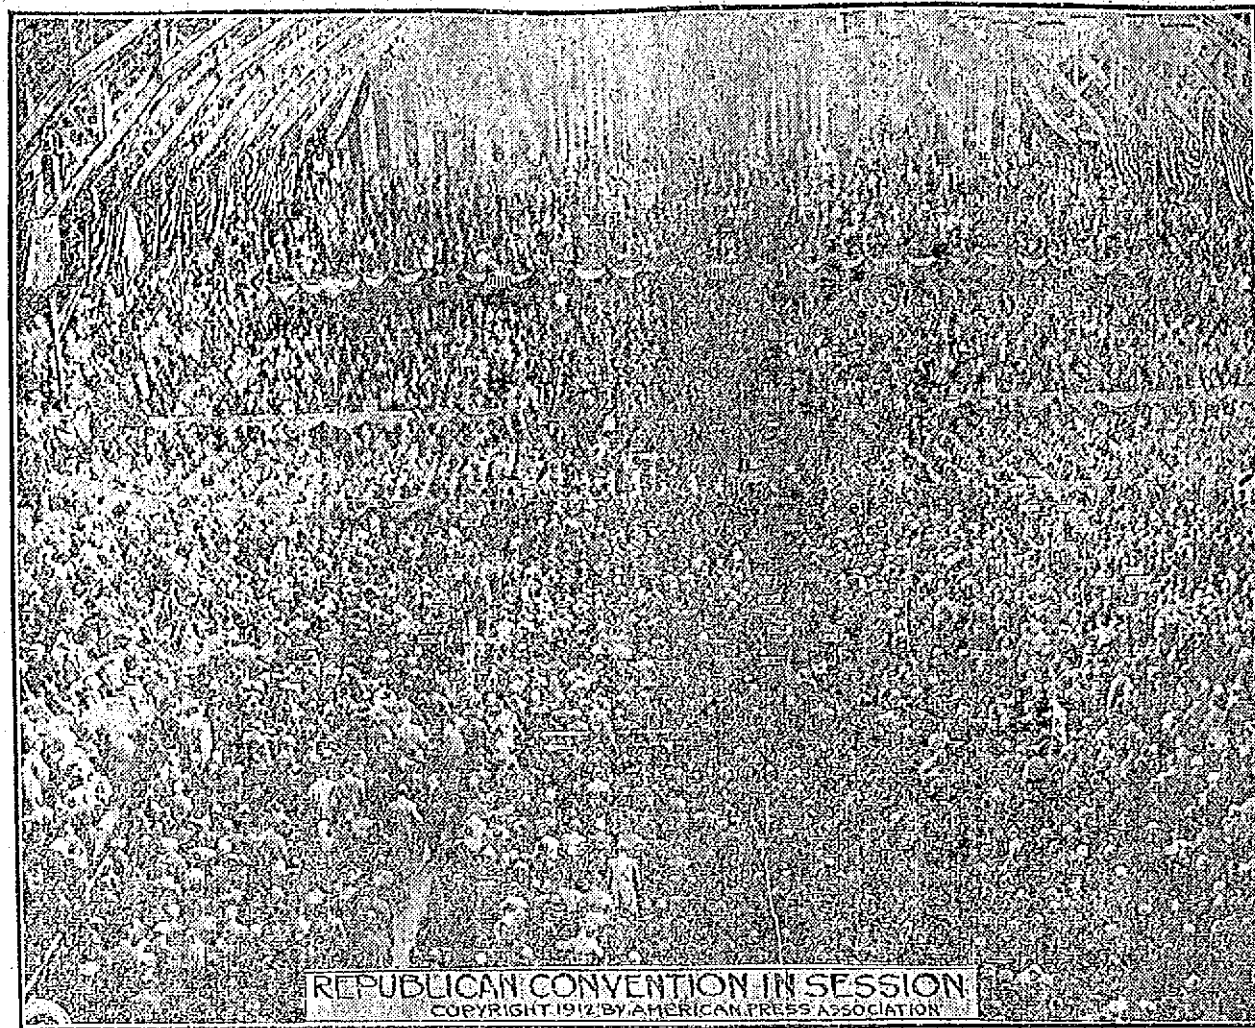

Other events will take place on July 4, 12, 27, Aug. 3, 10, 31, Sept. 2, 7, 21, 28, Oct. 5, 12 and 19.

HARRY GONZALES

SAYS YOU CAN FISH FOR BASS AFTER TODAY

The local fishermen will be pleased at an announcement made by Fish Warden Gonzales yesterday. Harry wants all fishermen to know that after tomorrow they are allowed to catch all the black bass they can, and they will not be molested. "There are plenty of bass in this section," said Harry, "and catching them furnishes great sport for fishermen. They always put up a battle and that is where the sport comes in."

NEW SEWER WANTED IN LLEWELYN STREET

It is Estimated the Cost Will be $6400

An order for a sewer that will cost somewhere in the vicinity of $6400 will go to the municipal council in a few days. The sewer has been petitioned for by E. J. Gilmore and will be laid in Llewellyn street. In order to reach the river it will be necessary to run the sewer through the land of the Locks and Canals Co. and it will be necessary to get the permission of that company before going ahead with the work. The sewer will be about 2100 feet in length. The sewer department is working on

FRANK M. DOWLING FORMER CLERK OF COMMITTEES BURIED THIS AFTERNOON

The funeral of Frank M. Dowling took place from his home in Congress street this afternoon. Mr. Dowling was clerk of committees and clerk of the common council under the old city government and enjoyed a large circle of friends who admired him for his honesty and integrity as well as for his splendid knowledge of affairs in general. The present city government and the governments of former years were well represented at the funeral.

The funeral took place at 3 o'clock. Rev. C. E. Fisher, pastor of the First Universalist church, officiated at the house and at the grave. There were many beautiful floral tributes. The bearers were the following members of the Kilwinning lodge of Masons: D. M. Cameron, E. J. Fleming, J. H. Leighton and G. G. King. Interment was in the Edson cemetery and the funeral was in charge of the J. B. Currier Co.

Among the flowers received were the following: Wreath of carnations, Kilwinning lodge, A. F. and A. M.; Mass cross of carnations, the Knights of Malta; rope of roses from his family; wreath of roses and galax leaves, Mrs. J. Ward and family; spray of Richmond roses, Mrs. A. W. Mackenzie; spray of peonies, Mr. and Mrs. Anders Thomson; spray of sweetpeas, Mrs. John Kenney; spray of carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tuttle; spray of carnations, Miss M. O'Neill; spray of carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell; spray of yellow marguerites, Mr. B. H. Crosby; spray of snap dragons, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Leducan; spray of sweetpeas, Mrs. Thomas Marr and Miss Margaret Marr; spray of pinks and sweetpeas, Miss Ketchen; spray of snap dragons and lilies, Wm. D. Whitte; spray of pinks, A. M. Smith; spray of pinks, Tyler A. Stevens; spray of pinks, the Tancard family; basket of roses and carnations, Mrs. Katherine Tyrrell and family; spray of white pinks, Mrs. Edmund; spray of snap dragons, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Honig; spray of pinks, Mr. and Mrs. George Halstead; spray of pinks, the Misses Remon; spray of roses, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Craig; mound of roses, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bailey; wreath of roses and pinks, Mr. and Mrs. George LeClair; wreath of roses and pinks, Mrs. John Balfrey; wreath of roses and galax leaves, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Finerty; wreath of roses and galax leaves, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson; wreath of roses and lilies, Mrs. Charles Nichols and Mrs. John Skelton, Jr., and a wreath of pinks and sweetpeas from Edward O'Donnell and family.

Among those who attended the funeral who came from out of town were the following: Mrs. A. W. Mackenzie of Jamaica Plain, Miss Isabelle Ward of Peabody, Miss Marion Remon of Salem, Miss Nana Ketchen of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Griffin of Stoneham, and Mrs. Jessie Briggs of Fairfield.

ROOSEVELT ENTHUSIASTS FROM OKLAHOMA

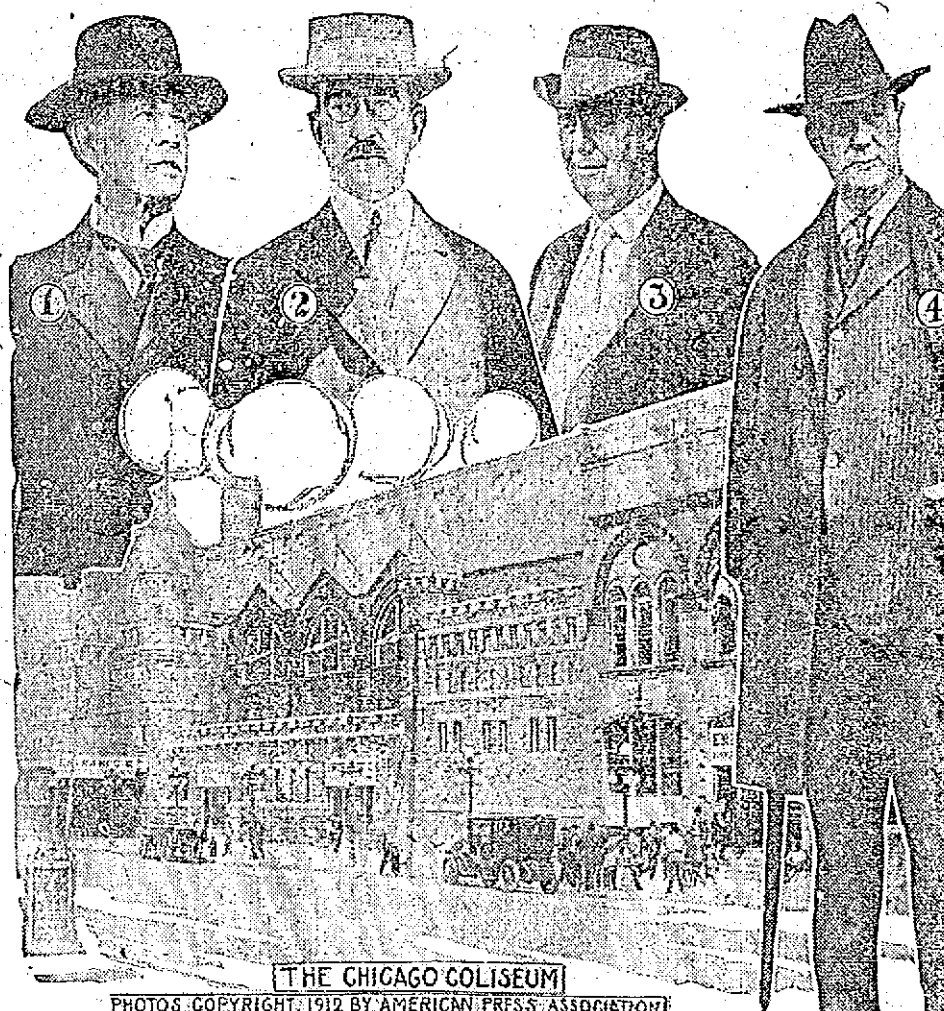

CHICAGO, June 20.—A delegation of Oklahoma men and women who sought the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt made things lively in Chicago from the moment of their arrival. They had banners and signs, and they displayed both. A wide estimated hat suspended in a wooden hoop showed that their preference was for the man who announced his candidacy by saying, "My hat is in the ring." Harry S. New, chairman of the committee on arrangements of the republican national committee, has been highly praised for the plans adopted for handling the crowds. A. M. Stevenson of Denver, who held a proxy as a member of the national committee, and J. H. Hawley of Texas are prominent republicans taking part in the convention.

AND WON FROM WORCESTERScore 4 to 2—De Groff Star at a Feature

WORCESTER, June 20.—Lowell won from Worcester yesterday afternoon by the score of 4 to 2. The Grays got on to the shoos of Van Dyke, the star pitcher of the Busters, who is also one of the best in the league, and after hitting the lanky pitcher all over the lot, Kesses yanked him in on the fifth and Wilson was sent in. Maybom pitched for Lowell and was in fine form. De Groff, had a fine day at bat, getting a three bagger and a home run in three times at bat. Lonergan at short for Lowell put up a classy game, pulling off some great stunts and killing some seemingly sure hits.

Lowell started right off the reel and got two runs in the first inning. Clemens went out on a bunt. Miller then doubled to right. Rube De Groff was next up and after inspecting a few of Van's curves, he landed on one that went over the bull in center field and both men scored.

In Worcester's half Nye, formerly of Lowell, started off with an infield hit and he went to second on a sacrifice by Jacobs. Shorten hit to Lonergan, who threw Nye out at third. Aubrey went out on a grounder.

In the fourth Lowell got one more when Bouttes opened with a single and went to second on a pretty sacrifice by Lonergan. After Lavigne fled out to Haas, Maybom singled and Jackie came home. Miller ended the inning by going out on a grounder to Van Dyke.

Lowell got another in the fifth. De Groff got a triple, and McGinnell scored him on a single. Maybom hit a double play, Nye, Aubrey to Haas, and Bouttes closed with a grounder. In the fifth Worcester got one. Wilson and Haas went out on flies to Maybom. Kihlullen hit to Maybom, who made a desperate attempt to land his man, but threw badly and the runner went to second and he took third on a wild pitch. Van Dyke walked and as he took quite a lead, Maybom tried to get him, but McGinnell dropped the ball and the man on third scored. Nye then went out on a fly.

Worcester got one more run in the seventh. Crum singled but went out at second when Wilson hit to Bouttes. Kihlullen hit one that Jackie didn't get and both were safe. Flaherty singled and Wilson scored. Nye retired the side when he hit to Lonergan, who tossed the ball to second. There was no more scoring.

YOUNG STONE BACK FROM NEW YORK
Lowell Boxer Made a Great Impression

Young Stone, the well known local boxer, returned home last evening from New York, where he met four men and won all his bouts. While in the vicinity of the "big boys," Stone was under the management of Jimmy Mahan of Lowell, who also looked after the interests of Young Boyle and two other Lowell boys. Stone showed up well in all his bouts, and made a big hit with the fight fans in New York and New Jersey. Stone entered the ring in all his bouts at 133 pounds and was in great condition. He showed that he was well acquainted with the game, and in three of his contests he won by the "K. O." route. His last bout was at Perth Amboy, N. J., and he met Silent Norton, who was heralded as a real champion. The Lowell boy got the jump on his man at the start and after showering him with rights and lefts for a minute the New Jersey lad dropped to the floor for the count of ten. Stone was given a great hand and he received several offers to go to New York in the fall.

He arrived in Lowell last night and is looking the picture of health and feeling fine. He will rest up for a while and will then take another trip to the metropolis.

Keen Interest Being Taken in
Running High Jump at Olympiad

GEORGE HORINE

Much interest is centered in the running high jump event at the Olympic games. No foreigner seems to have the slightest chance to win this contest, as the United States is so strongly represented. Still, the winner does not stand out. Up until a short time ago George Horine, the Californian, was picked to win the event with ease. But of late several other stars have popped up. Among them are Egon Erickson and the Indian, Jim Thorpe.

Although Horine set a new world's mark for the high jump when he went over the bar at 6 feet 7 inches, in later trials he did not do so well and was beaten several times at 6 feet 2. It is the opinion of the experts that he had a little too much of it and went stale.

Should he not recover his form in Sweden the event will be well looked after by Erickson and Thorpe. In this city two days before the team sailed on the Finland the Indian went over the bar at 6 feet 6 inches.

DRESSED AS MAN
WOMAN ARRESTED BY BOSTON POLICEMAN
BOSTON, June 20.—Without a touch of effeminacy in her actions, a woman dressed as a man attracted the attention of Patrolman Campbell in Bowdoin square about 11 o'clock last night. The "man" whose movements were improperly directed, was taken in tow by the officer and sent to the station house in the patrol wagon. Up to that time everything indicated that the prisoner was a man.

In the Joy street station, when Campbell removed the prisoner's straw hat, he was amazed to find a wealth of hair. He told Lieutenant Goff that the "man" was a woman.

When asked her name she said "Jennie Jones"; willingly she gave her age as 42, and said she resided on Charles street.

When she arrived at the city prison on Somerset street, the attendant looked upon the girl, who was filled with wonderment and then with surprise. She was locked up for the night, but before she appears in court she will have an opportunity of changing her attire.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Court City of Lowell, No. 30, F. of A., held its regular meeting last evening at the Elks hall on Middle street, and there was a large attendance. The officers elected were: Chief ranger, Eugene P. Sullivan; sub-chief ranger, Michael Sullivan; recording secretary, George B. McKenna; senior woodward, Henry McVoy; junior woodward, Lot Healey; senior beadle, Walter Parsons; junior beadle, Michael Gilligan; lecturer, William Cassin. Deputy John Barrett was endorsed for district deputy, and he thanked the members for the honor, and made some very interesting remarks on the good of the order. It was voted to give the retiring chief ranger a suitable present for the good he has done the court. The charter is open and all those who wish to join should do so at once. The treasurer's report showed the court to be in a good financial condition.

Royal Arcanum
There was a large attendance at the meeting of industry council, Royal Arcanum, held last night. Regent David A. Hogan presided and much business was transacted. Supreme Trustee John J. Hogan presented Thos. Dowd, on behalf of the council, a beautiful R. A. charm for bringing in the largest number of candidates. Mr. Dowd thanked the council for their kindness and assured them that he would continue the good work. The treasurer announced that he had paid the death claim to the widow of Alphonse Bibault. After the meeting, a whist party was conducted by the council, in aid of the Hospital Bed association. The winners were as follows:

Ladies—Mrs. Chard, first prize; Mrs. Clifford, second prize; Mrs. Hutchinson, third prize; consolation prize, Mrs. Howe.

Gentlemen—R. H. Clifford, first prize; E. Mullen, second prize; J. Dowd, third prize; consolation prize, Master Frank Quinn.

LAWRENCE HIGH
WON FROM LOWELLIn Yesterday's Game by
Score of 8 to 3

The Lawrence high school team came to Lowell yesterday afternoon and played the local school team at Washington park, the visitors winning by the score of 8 to 3. The game was won by Lawrence principally through the great pitching of Higgins who allowed Lowell but two hits.

Lawrence had no difficulty to solve the benders of the Lowell twirlers, piling up ten fine bingles. Lawrence also played a better fielding game than the locals, the Lawrence boys making one error while Lowell piled up quarters of misplays. The Lawrence team showed up to be fast in about every department of the game. They stole five bases and were full of life all the time.

The only Lowell men to connect with his were Capt. Cawley and Desmond, each managing to get a hit. Kennis, Westland and Burman each got two hits for Lawrence, and but two players on the visiting team did not connect. The game was witnessed by a large crowd and all were satisfied that the Lawrence boys played rings around Lowell and that they should take the victory. The score:

LABORERS WIN
JURY RETURNED A VERDICT
AGAINST CONTRACTOR

BOSTON, June 20.—Ruben Gorelik, contractor, of Chambers street, was found guilty of non-payment of wages by a jury in the superior criminal court yesterday before Judge Chase, his prosecution being the first of the kind in this state.

Gorelik was found guilty of the offense in two counts under the acts of 1911, chap. 208, in the Brighton court, and was fined $20 on each count. He appealed. He now intends to take the case on exceptions to the supreme court.

The two laborers who did not get their week's pay, Michael do Marco and Joseph Lacagnia, were employed in the construction of a dwelling at 33 Brackett street, Brighton, in April last. Samuel Goldberg was the original contractor. He sub-let the contract to Gorelik.

After the building was finished, it was testified, Gorelik, when the two laborers applied to him for their wages, told them to ask for them of Goldberg. When they did so, Goldberg told them he had sub-let the contract to Gorelik, that Gorelik had hired them, and that Gorelik should pay them. Each laborer was owed $15.

MURPHY-BALDWIN BOUT
WAS CALLED A DRAWBig Crowd Witnessed the Bout Between Lightweights in Boston Last Night

BOSTON, June 20.—The New England lightweight championship is still in dispute, for Eddie Murphy of South Boston and Matty Baldwin of Charlestown were unable to do better than draw in a 12-round fight at the Boston Arena last night. It was one of the best matches that Boston fans have witnessed in many a day.

The pace was so fast that many expected to see the men slow up after two or three rounds. But the boys maintained the same fast clip, with neither one showing any apparent effect until towards the close, when Murphy began to score with left jabs and right inside counters to Baldwin's head and body, the blows shaking Matty.

It would have been an injustice to call the bout anything else but a draw. Baldwin amazed his closest admirers with his form. Murphy, on the other hand, was content to allow Matty to do all the forcing and it was this that led many to believe that the weight had a slowing effect on the South Boston boy.

In point of effective scoring, Murphy's leads and blows appeared the better. Baldwin did a lot of swinging and was very much in a hurry to end matters quickly. Murphy walked around, danced in and away from Baldwin and, in fact, made Murphy miss many blows.

Both boxers weighed in at 4 o'clock and neither flipped the beam at the weight. After this announcement from Benny Osthus, Baldwin and Murphy stepped to the centre of the ring, examined the tape on each other's hands and retired to their corners, where the gloves were adjusted.

When the gong changed Baldwin rushed and started a left jab which Murphy knocked down. Once again Matty assumed the aggressive and Murphy slipped away. Then he shot a left to Baldwin's nose and the crowd flowed freely. Baldwin started in to rush but Murphy backed away and slipped Baldwin's attack. The Bunker Hill boy kept at his work until at the close of the round he had evened up.

Baldwin left his corner for the second round with a rush. Eddie had all he could do to block the fusillade of blows, and it was some few seconds before he found his bearings. Baldwin followed right after Murphy and landed many telling blows. The first instance of Murphy's slowness came in the second round, but it was the game the South Boston boxer was playing, allowing Matty to force the issue and wear himself out.</

TAFT MEN SCORE AGAIN ON THE SECOND TEST VOTE

The President Adds to Majority He Had on the First Roll-call Tuesday

CHICAGO, June 20.—The Taft forces won a far more significant victory in the convention yesterday than that which they won Tuesday in the vote making Senator Root temporary chairman. They surprised themselves and staggered their opponents.

On a motion to table a Roosevelt nomination forbidding 75 delegates whose seats are contested from taking part in deciding their right to their seats, the Taft side pulled 554 votes against 410 from the Roosevelt-La Follette-Cummings delegations. This is a gain of six over the vote for Senator Root and the Taft managers confidently believe the ghost of a Roosevelt stampede has been laid.

Having held their strength against Mr. Roosevelt's assault on two minor issues, they feel assured that they have him beaten on the main question, which, of course, is the nomination. They declared last night that the ex-president must take a beating or bolt. Among the delegates voting with the Taft people yesterday were five Illinoisans, seven Marylanders and five Oregonians, who are instructed to vote for Mr. Roosevelt for president and two No. Dakotans instructed for La Follette. Assuming that all these 19 men will obey their instructions on the presidential ballot, Mr. Taft is still apparently left with 415 votes or five more than are necessary to a choice.

Roosevelt Campaign Going State

Far away Hawaii gave him that margin. A nomination for the presidency of the United States then is in the hands of the Sandwich Islanders. The Hawaiian delegates who voted against Mr. Root Tuesday swung their six votes over to the Taft side yesterday and it is generally understood they will stay there until the first ballot has been taken.

Also among the contributors to his strength are the Alaskans, the Fillips and the Porto Ricans. These and the blacks and whites from the democratic solid south are the reliance of the Taft candidacy against the almost solid vote of the republican states of Maine, California, Idaho, Illinois, Kansas, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, So. Dakota, West Virginia and Wisconsin. It is an extraordinary state of things in a democracy.

But here is another thought. But for Frank Selberich of Jamaica, Plain, Mr. Taft's nomination would be a certainty. If Mr. Roosevelt did not have the eight delegates-at-large from Massachusetts, and if Mr. Taft had them, there would be no doubt of Mr. Taft's majority.

The Roosevelt campaign seems to be going state. The strenuous ex-president may have overtrained. The floor work, the parliamentary maneuvering of his followers has been futile and the inveterate delegates among his instructed delegations are growing more and more dissatisfied with the tactics which they have been called upon to support.

CHURCH DEBT IS WIPED OUT

25th Anniversary of the Centralville M. E. Church

The Centralville M. E. church was the scene last night of a happy gathering, and an incident of the joyous occasion was the burning of a cancelled paper representing a debt of $4,000 upon the church building. The event marked the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the church and the church now stands free of debt. The anniversary supper was served at 6:30 o'clock by the Ladies Aid society, Mrs. Russell Fox, president, Rev. J. T. Carlson, the pastor, presided. There were present several friends from other denominations and the speakers were four clergymen of city churches, Rev. H. H. MacDonald of the Fifth Street Baptist church, Rev. George J. Kenngott of the First Presbyterian, Rev. Charles T. Billings of the First Unitarian, and Rev. M. B. Lytle of St. Paul's M. E. church.

During an intermission between the addresses, Mrs. N. J. Marcotte sang two solos, Russell M. Fox accompanying.

The jubilation closed with the burning of the cancelled note, after the treasurer, E. P. Bryant, had held it up to the view of the audience, and the president of the board of trustees, Russell Fox, had read its contents, explaining that the date it bore, Dec. 22, 1905, did not represent its age, but merely its transfer from the bank to an individual. The amount was $4500. Treasurer Bryant held the tray upon which the note was deposited, and President Fox touched a match to the paper, the audience singing the Doxology to celebrate its cremation. The meeting was then closed with the benediction by the pastor.

REV. JAMES F. CARLSON.

FRIEND OF COLONEL BRYAN MAY BE PERMANENT CHAIRMAN

Of the Democratic National Committee—Parker May be the Temporary Chairman

BALTIMORE, June 20.—Members of the arrangements committee meeting today to name the temporary officers of the coming democratic national convention faced the opposition of William J. Bryan to the selection of Judge Alton B. Parker of New York for temporary chairman, who had been practically agreed upon.

Several committee members openly asserted this morning that a majority of their number were determined to name Mr. Parker notwithstanding the attitude of Col. Bryan, who yesterday sent word over the telephone from Chicago to his friends here that he was opposed to Parker on the ground that he was a conservative and that as the party was progressive in spirit a progressive should be chosen to make the keynote speech.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, telephoned here early today that the New York delegation had put forward Judge Parker's name and that they wanted a light vote to select him. It was generally accepted that should Judge Parker be named by the committee the fight would be carried to the floor of the convention where it will then be determined at the opening session whether the so-called progressives or the conservatives are to name the presidential nominee and construct the party platform.

Theodore A. Hill of California, a friend of Col. Bryan, was heard about today as likely to be named as permanent chairman of the convention.

Just what candidates, if any, the Clark and Wilson forces will put forward for temporary chairman for consideration by the arrangement committee was not known early today.

Suggestions were made that the Wilson people would seek to have either Senator Culberson of Texas or Congressman Henry, also of Texas, named, and that the Clark leaders were looking to Senator-elect James of Kentucky to lead their fight for the honors of temporary chairman. Senator O'Gorman of New York sent word that his name must not be presented for temporary chairman. Some of the national committee members favoring Judge Parker were outspoken against the opposition of Mr. Bryan and declared that if a question of whether Mr. Bryan was to control the convention or not was to come it would be better decided now than later.

Later Committee member Daniels of No. Carolina urged his fellow committee-men this morning that harmony must be maintained and he conferred with his associates in an endeavor to find some way of bringing about a solution of the temporary chairmanship problem.

Members of the arrangements committee called to name the temporary officers of the convention are: Chairman Norman E. Mack, P. L. Hall of Nebraska, Urey Woodson of Kentucky, Joseph Daniels of North Carolina, Clark Howell of Georgia, John McGraw of West Virginia, W. J. Johnson of Texas, Martin Wade of Iowa, Edwin Wood of Michigan, Roger Sullivan of Illinois, Thomas Taggart of Indiana, Robert E. Wing of Louisiana, Hudspeth of New Jersey, Thomas Brown of Vermont, John Osborn of Wyoming and J. F. Talbot of Maryland.

All of the members of the committee on arrangements were here except Mr. Hall of Nebraska. Neen was the hour fixed for the meeting. It was authoritatively stated at 10 a. m. that a majority of the committee were for naming Judge Parker for temporary chairman.

man and that the committee would go through with the plan. Seven of the committeemen said they thought that the matter would be taken to the convention floor. It was informally proposed this morning as a possible solution of the question that Col. Bryan be named permanent chairman.

W. F. McCombs, leader of the Wilson forces, said that the Wilson people had no candidate for temporary chairman and would abide by the committee's selection.

It is understood here today that the Clark advocates will meet in Washington tomorrow to determine their course.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, is expected here tomorrow with Gov. Dix, following the day after and Judge Parker is expected probably on Monday.

BRISK BLAZE BROKE OUT IN HOUSE IN CHURCH STREET

An alarm from box 53 at 7:24 o'clock last night summoned a portion of the fire department to 47 Church street, where there was a brisk blaze in progress. One of the occupants of the house attempted to light the gas and fumes from a leak ignited and blazed to the ceiling. In the excitement the gas fixture became detached from the ceiling and when the firemen arrived they simply cut off the gas from the main and the excitement was over.

MISSING LINDSAY BOY IS WITH THE MAZDAZNANS

He Has Been Located in the Temple at Montreal—Is With His Mother

MONTREAL, June 20.—With His Humbleness Doctor Ottoman Zar-Adusht Hanish, the "master" of the Mazdaznans, during his stay in Montreal, is 12-year-old Willie Lindsay, whom detectives of the state of Illinois have been seeking for weeks.

Relatives of the boy early this year instituted proceedings in the Chicago courts to have his guardianship taken from his mother and Hanish and have him turned over to his uncle, Charles E. Lindsay. Mrs. Lindsay, it was claimed, on account of her devotion to the Mazdaznan leader and cult, was not a fit and proper person to be entrusted with the care of the boy. The Illinois courts ruled accordingly.

Then Mrs. Lindsay and her son disappeared from Chicago. Every state and Montreal were searched in vain. Mother and son were believed to have gone to South America.

Mrs. Lindsay and her son were welcomed here by the adherents of Dr. Hanish and kept here until the arrival of the high priest last week.

When seen yesterday Willie Lindsay looked none the worse for his experiences and with his mother seemed in the best of health and spirits. He is apparently very fond of Dr. Hanish, to whom he alludes as the "master." Young Lindsay takes part in the ceremonies of the Mazdaznans and acts as an acolyte at the altar of the cult. Hanish, in giving his testimony before the Chicago courts, testified that he was born in Persia in 1814. In a lecture here on Omar Khayyam, however, he stated he was Persian. He admitted he knew none. If it was information respecting Omar Khayyam, his life and his writings that the audience desired, any one of them would have learned more by staying at home and reading a dictionary of biography.

The "11th semi-annual Gahanbar and peace congress of Mazdaznan" is now in session at the Montreal Mazdaznan "temple."

ROOSEVELT MEN BOLT MEETING ON CREDENTIALS

They Demanded Evidence in Full and on Being Refused Left the Room

CHICAGO, June 20.—Roosevelt members of the credential committee, acting under the specific orders of Col. Roosevelt, broke out of the committee room at 10:30 o'clock last night after trying to open the doors and bring all newspaper men into the room.

The doors of the committee room were suddenly thrown open by J. J. Sullivan of Ohio, who rushed out with the cry "All Roosevelt men walk out." He was followed by Hugh T. Halbert of Minnesota, Francis J. Heney of California, George L. Record of New Jersey and other Roosevelt men. As they pushed open the swinging doors after Sullivan they cried out to the newspaper men: "All newspaper men come inside and see what they are trying to do to us."

Col. Taylor, assistant sergeant-at-arms, shouted to the doorkeeper to admit no one. The Roosevelt forces shouted again for every one to come in. Mr. Taylor called for policemen, who pushed their way through and kept the crowd from getting in.

The Roosevelt men rushed from the room, declaring they were acting under "orders from Col. Roosevelt."

"Everybody go to the Florentine room at the congress," shouted one man. They rushed out, followed by the crowd and in the street outside of the Coliseum they were overtaken by Secretary William Hayward.

"Why did you act that way?" he demanded of Heney. "Why didn't you wait until some rules had been passed?"

"We are acting under the direct orders of Col. Roosevelt," retorted Heney.

STAFF CHOSEN FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL REVIEW FOR NEXT YEAR

The final number of the Review was issued today. The Review is a monthly magazine printed entirely by pupils of the High School. It consists of short stories, social news, editorials, jokes, knockouts and sporting news. The editors are all members of the senior class. At the close of each year members in the following class are chosen to succeed them. Only those who have contributed material for the paper are eligible for election. It is very evident that next year's Review will be up to the standard of the Review this year. The editors are all class leaders and are capable of issuing a magazine that will be a source of pride and credit to the High School.

BARACA CLASS HELD A PLEASANT LAWN PARTY LAST EVENING

The Baraca class of the First Trinitarian Congregational church gave an enjoyable lawn party last night at the home of Mrs. Frances S. Kenneon, 20 Chestnut street.

The lawn was dotted here and there with little refreshment booths, and overhead were strung, from tree to tree, long rows of glowing Japanese lanterns, throwing a rosy glow in the darkness. Games were played and the young people enjoyed themselves thoroughly until a late hour.

The teacher of the class, Mrs. Kenneon, and the class president, Mrs. Walter Muzzey, had charge of the general arrangements.

Those in charge of the several booths were as follows: Cake table, Mrs. J. M. Stanton and Mrs. Gladys Goodchild; ice cream booth, Mrs. Adeline Kilpatrick, Mrs. Annie McWhirley and Mrs. Charles F. Bower; candy table, Miss Jessie McAdams and Miss Edna Benson; tonic table, Miss Mary Claus and Miss Jessie McAdams, assisted by Mr. J. C. McCrae, who acted as announcer and did the dispensing; the ticket takers were Miss Grace Peard and Mrs. Kenneon, and the decorating was done by Mrs. Walter Muzzey, Miss Mary Claus, Mrs. J. M. Stanton, Mrs. Adeline Kilpatrick and Mr. Charles Muzzey.

During the evening a hurdy hurdy under the direction of Mrs. Walter Muzzey and Mrs. Rosalind Cashlon, played popular melodies and furnished a tuneful background for the gaiety of the occasion.

LARCENY CHARGED

CLAIRVOYANT PLACED UNDER ARREST AT WORCESTER

WORCESTER, June 20.—Charged with theft of $300 worth of diamonds and jewelry from Mrs. Emma Eaton of this city, Richard L. Drexell, who for several months did business at 43 Park street as a clairvoyant, was arrested Tuesday in Hartford, Conn., by Inspector O'Day of the Worcester police. Drexell was doing business as a clairvoyant in Hartford under the name of Robert Morwood, and the police say that he is wanted in several other cities on similar charges.

While in Worcester Drexell had a large clientele of women, and it is said he got jewelry and diamonds from several other women. He left the city suddenly about a month ago.

THE KASINO

Hundreds of people who enjoyed the lawn party conducted by St. Margaret's parish Tuesday night had no idea that The Kasino had been one of the largest in this section of the state, and that it had a dance floor unsurpassed in New England. All agreed that the conditions for dancing were ideal.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The concluding week of The Temple Players at the Merrimack Square Theatre finds their organization in a bright musical novelty entitled "A Night at the Cabaret," in which the various members of the cast are seen to excellent advantage. Miss Hawthorne, Miss Nichols, Miss Wood, James Byrnes, Richard Stead and the other member of the company are all heard in most enjoyable numbers. It is with regret that the patrons of the theatre heard of the departure of this organization but there has been some satisfaction in knowing that in their place the management has been fortunate in securing the services of The Harvard Stock company, that is to present some of the latest and best plays of the season. This company has recently completed a 40 weeks' en-agement at Cambridge, and its members include some of the best known members of stock in the east. Their presentation for the first three days of next week will be "The Belle of Virginia," a story of the blue and the gray, while the last three days "Ismael," or "In the Depths," will be presented.

The list of plays to be given during the remainder of the season include some of the choicest known to the theatrical world and should serve to provide pleasurable enjoyment for the patrons.

Leften, character change artist and impersonator, is without a superior on the vaudeville stage, and Claude Austin, comedy juggler, is especially clever. Miss Alice Bagley, in illustrated song, is scoring a big hit. The photography for the last three days of the week will be in keeping with the high standard established by the rest of the bill. The same policy of the past, in respect to a continuous performance from 1:30 to 10:30 o'clock daily, will be continued by the management. Photographs and illustrated songs will be given in connection with the presentation of the stock company. Remember that this is the "coolest spot in town."

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM?

Nobody, so far as we know, seems to take any interest in the republican platform to be adopted at Chicago. In fact the idea of a platform seems to have dropped out of sight. It may be that as Mark Hanna once remarked, "republican platforms are provided for election purposes only." Nevertheless, the republican party has always been in the habit of adopting some substantial platform at its conventions and disregarding it after election. The main features of the platform adopted at the last two conventions were either ignored completely or deliberately violated. The republican pledges to the people on the tariff were deliberately violated in the Payne-Aldrich tariff law. Even under President Taft many of the party pledges were openly ignored.

At Chicago the real contest is a scramble for office between the followers of Roosevelt and those of President Taft. Those who are in office wish to remain, and those who are out wish to get in. The cardinal principle of the republican party for the past twenty-five years has been the acquisition of the spoils and the distribution of special privileges in lieu of large campaign contributions.

The trusts apparently have less to fear in this election than they have had for many years past. They feel that the Sherman act has been bereft of all its terrors, and it is no longer a menace to their monopolistic extortions. The fangs of this law that once held the trusts in awe have been drawn by the supreme court, and now the worst evil that can befall any of the trusts under this law is a matter of reorganization on paper.

Several of them have gone through the ordeal, and find themselves as much of a trust as before. The Standard Oil trust is a notable example. Why should any other trust dread the operation of a law whose heaviest penalty is a slight modification in the abstract form of organization? But the business of the trusts can go on practically the same as ever. This explains why there is no alarm among the trusts over the prospective action of the republican convention.

President Taft has left some things in his administration to be straightened out. One of them is the enforcement of the food and drugs act of 1906. Dr. Wiley was enforcing this law until he was driven out of the department of agriculture by Secretary Wilson and Lawyer McCabe. Since his departure the advocates of embalmed beef and benzoate of soda have things entirely their own way; and this state of affairs will probably continue until the people rise up and demand a strict enforcement of the law, which can never be accomplished under Secretary Wilson and his present assistants. Wilson should long ago have been removed from office, and if President Taft had done his duty Dr. Wiley would have been retained.

This, however, is but one of the great many matters that demand immediate attention. Something must be done to regulate immigration and distribute the immigrants where they are needed throughout the country in order to increase the supply of labor on the farms. One of the alleged causes of the high cost of living is a shortage in the crops. This can be remedied only by increasing the labor supply in the agricultural districts. The federal government by directing immigration to the farm districts can do much to increase the area under cultivation and even the product per acre.

There is little prospect at the present time or even in the immediate future of any relief from the high cost of living. Yet the republican party at Chicago pays no attention to this or other needs of the people. The fight for the offices is too bitter to allow consideration of the real questions that concern the welfare of the people throughout the land. It is plain that the interests of the people and of the nation at large demand a change in the administration that will drive the republican party into retirement, and put in control of the government a party that will stand for the welfare and prosperity of the whole people.

THE MENACE OF ROOSEVELT

There was a time when the people of this country respected Roosevelt, but that day is gone, and why?

Because he has descended to the methods of the most unscrupulous demagogue; because while he shouts vociferously against the bosses and the machine, he welcomes the worst of the bosses to his camp, and he himself has developed into the most dangerous boss in the country. Mustered under his banner are the most radical elements in the land today; the worst and most dangerous classes in all the political parties, including some that are more anarchistic than political.

He has appealed to the lowest instincts of the mob, and he has made charges against Taft that he knows to be false or unjust, charges that so far as they are damaging would apply to a far greater extent to Roosevelt himself.

The charge that Taft is with the bosses against the people applies less to Taft than any other president this nation has had for a dozen years. The charge that Taft commits the government of this country not to the people but to a representative part of the people is a piece of claptrap of the worst kind. It is a distortion of the president's words as he explained in his address at the Opera House in this city. The meaning of that phrase which by the way is not correctly quoted by Roosevelt or the Rooseveltians is, that the people rule the country not directly but through their representatives.

Roosevelt would overturn the constitution and would not only have direct legislation but would even submit the decisions of the supreme court to the people for approval or rejection. Where or when in this country did any sane man ever propose such absurdities?

Not socialism in its worst form is half so dangerous as these nostrums put forward by Theodore Roosevelt in his appeal to the masses for the nomination for president of the United States.

No longer do we hear much objection to the third term. The coming dictator will break through all the established customs and even through the constitution if he gets the chance. What is most alarming in the situation is the extent to which he controls the mob on the republican side. It is the mob that favors a man who is likely to make trouble, likely to reward his followers, and to put the rowdy in the saddle. It is true that the nation is today confronted with a serious crisis in the rise of ultra radicalism led by a most dangerous man, once trusted and honored by the people of the United States.

The I. W. W. and their attempt to precipitate a social revolution, the populists, the socialists, and the anarchists are all together of little account in comparison with Roosevelt, his methods and his dangerous preachments. It will be a great triumph for conservatism and fairly safe leadership if Roosevelt is defeated at Chicago, but otherwise, the republican party will have committed suicide by dashing its bark to pieces upon the rocks of radicalism.

AS DEAD AS YORICK'S SKULL

Seen and Heard

Prof. Jos. Fredette, formerly leader of the Opera House orchestra but now at the Casino has composed a march that bids fair to be whistled by all Lowell when it comes before the public. The few friends who have heard it are already whistling it and those who dance claim that it will be the two-step hit of the season. Mr. Fredette at present is preparing the orchestration of his composition and it will be given its first public rendition by the Casino orchestra in a few days. Mr. Fredette has refused a substantial cash offer for his sale outright and will have it published through a Boston firm in a week or more.

It looks like a safe and sane Fourth all right.

Teddy is the real bear at the convention all right.

According to the proverb "Early to bed and early to rise"

Was a saying he never forgot; He wished to be healthy and wealthy and wise.

But, to tell the truth, he was not. He always was careful to look ere he leaped.

And he always thought twice ere he spoke. But he never got much for the crops that he reaped.

And few were the records he broke. He never crossed bridges before they were reached.

His candle never burned at both ends; He endeavored to practice the things that he preached.

He was careful in choosing his friends; He remembered the rolling stone proverb and stayed.

In one little spot all his life. But his heels were run down and his trousers were frayed.

And his neighbors all pined his wife. MORAL:

There's a lesson these few simple verses reveal. Whoever peruses may find it; The proverb is good, but a very great deal.

Depends on the man who's behind it.

"O, Mrs. Watts, you should join our literary society."

"Should I?"

"Yes, indeed. We study and learn so much. Last meeting we took up Carlyle's quarrels with his wife."

"It must have been interesting."

"Very. Next meeting we shall investigate the private life of Goethe and his love affairs."

"How instructive!"

"Yes, and we have found out everything about Poe's dissipation and disliking."

PERSONALLY CONDUCTED

EXCURSIONS TO CALIFORNIA

Are you going to California? Do you want to be extra comfortable on the trip at no extra cost?

Would you like to have a first rate, good natured, thoroughly competent, and well informed conductor go all the way through on the trip with you, a man who is specially selected, and paid by our railroad company to look after your comfort?

Such a man goes through with each of our Through Tourist Car Excursions. We chose men specially fitted for this work; men who are courteous and kind, who have made the trip many times and thoroughly understand their business.

Just call or write and let me tell you all about the Personally Conducted, low fare parties to California that have helped to make the "Burlington Route" service famous. Alex Stocks, New England Passenger Agent, C. & N. E. R. R., 224 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

The Rev. J. F. O'Callaghan, the distinguished-looking, gray-haired priest, whose short, calm invocation of the divine blessing was the incongruous prelude of the tumult which immediately spread over the convention, has special claims to the interest of Massachusetts folk. He was born in Salem and is a product of its schools.

He was one of a family which sent six sons through Harvard college. Graduating at Cambridge for the first seven or eight years of his priesthood at the Paulist school, connected with the Catholic university at Washington. The Paulist order, founded by Fr. Hecker of Concord and Brook Farm fame, addresses itself to the task of converting non-Catholics.

A brilliant speaker, this missionary work corrupted Fr. O'Callaghan for the first seven or eight years of his priesthood. He travelled all over the country delivering propagandist addresses. For the last few years, however, he has been settled over the Paulist church in Chicago. Fr. O'Callaghan was the first Catholic priest to preach in Appleton chapel, Harvard. This he did at the express invitation of President Eliot. He is a prominent figure in the civic life of Chicago and is highly respected by men of all denominations.—Boston Herald.

"The BUNGALOW"

The ants are in the butter dish, the flies are in the cream, The only water we can get is carried from the stream!

The farmers will not sell their eggs—they say they salt them down— And all their fruit and vegetables they send away to town.

The planks beneath our rugs are full of cracks both deep and wide. And snails and slugs and crawling bugs come creeping up inside.

I found a caterpillar once encamped upon my toe. But that is what you must expect when in a bungalow.

We cannot sit upon the porch, a hornet's nest is there; At every sound they all come out with fierce and angry air.

The shingle roof is leaky, too; you wake and find the bed Is soaking from the shower bath in action overhead.

My face and arms are all tattooed with raw mosquito bites. And concerts by the owls and frogs make horrible the nights.

But when we write to city friends we say: "Why don't you go And buy an acre in the woods and build a bungalow?"

During his last visit to this country Henri Vignaud, for so many years our secretary of embassy at Paris, told a story of one Renaud, who came to Paris as senator from a district in the Pyrenees.

Renaud engaged a room at a hotel in Paris and paid a month's rent—200 francs—in advance. The proprietor asked him whether he would take a receipt.

"A receipt is unnecessary," said Renaud. "God has witnessed the payment."

"Do you believe in God?" sneered the host.

"Most assuredly," replied Renaud. "Don't you?"

"Not I, monsieur."

"Ah," said Renaud, "in that case please make me out a receipt!"

BRYAN IS OPPOSED

TO JUDGE PARKER

Does Not Want Him for Chairman

BALTIMORE, June 20.—Opposition developed unexpectedly last night against the naming of Judge Alton B. Parker of New York for temporary chairman of the democratic national convention. While a majority of the committee on arrangements, which will select today the temporary officers of the convention, were favorable to the selection of Judge Parker, it became known last night that at informal conferences of members of the committee friends of William J. Bryan had come out against Judge Parker's selection and that a new choice might have to be made.

The statement was made by those opposed to Judge Parker's selection that he was a conservative, and that a progressive man should make the keynote speech.

Mr. Bryan was said to have communicated his views by telephone from Chicago yesterday. Leaders of the movement to nominate Champ Clark for president planned to hold a meeting in Washington and determine whether they should present a candidate for temporary chairman. The Wilson leaders were uncertain whether they would have a candidate.

The committee men felt that it was desirable to maintain harmony. There were reports that the question of the temporary chairmanship might be brought before the convention for settlement.

Friends of Representative Oscar Underwood of Alabama became actively engaged yesterday in seeking to bring about his nomination for president. Senator Bankhead of Alabama came over from Washington and conferred with the national committee men here. Clark Howell, national committee man from Georgia, the oldest member of the national committee in point of service, having served 20 years, arrived here yesterday and was soon engaged in numerous conferences.

Mr. Howell, who has just been re-elected a member of the national committee for the next four years, believes that Mr. Underwood is the logical choice.

BODY OF DOCTOR

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—A coroner's jury at Clifton, Tenn., returned a verdict of accidental drowning in the case of Dr. Loren Dosey, whose body was found in the Tennessee river yesterday.

Dr. Dosey and his wife, Dora, were on the way to Clayton, the county seat of St. Louis county, where Mrs. Dosey is charged with having bigamously married William J. Jordan, of whose murder she was acquitted before the Doseys went south.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. Green's Health—Her Own Statement.

Covington, Mo.—"Your medicine has done me more good than all the doctor's medicines. At every monthly period I had to stay in bed four days because of hemorrhages, and my back was so weak I could hardly walk. I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I can stay up and do my work. I think it is the best medicine on earth for women."

—Mrs. JENNIE GREEN, Covington, Mo.

How Mrs. Cline Avoided Operation.

Brownsville, Ind.—"I can say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me more good than anything else. One doctor said I must be operated upon for a serious female trouble and that nothing could help me but an operation."

"I had hemorrhages and at times could not get any medicine to stop them. I got in such a weak condition that I would have died if I had not got relief soon."

"Several women who had taken your Compound, told me to try it and I did and found it to be the right medicine to build up the system and overcome female troubles."

"I am now in great deal better health than I ever expected to be, so I think I ought to thank you for it."

LEGAL NOTICES

MORTGAGEE'S SALE
By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by and for the use of William P. Holcombe, dated August 27, 1905, and recorded with Middlesex North District Deeds, Book 438, Page 558, for breach of the condition of said mortgage deed, will be sold at public auction upon the premises described in said mortgage deed, on Monday, July 1, 1912, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, viz:

A certain tract of land situated in Belvidere, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the corner of a stone wall at land formerly owned by Thayer and land of Mr. Parker, thence northerly on said stone wall by said Parker land five hundred eighty-three (583) feet, more or less, to a cross in the ground; thence on said cross wall by land of one King five hundred fourteen (514) feet, more or less, to a wall at land of one Sexton; thence southerly on said wall by said Sexton land six hundred thirty-six (636) feet, more or less, to a corner of the lot, thence westerly on stone wall three hundred forty-seven (347) feet, more or less, by other land of Sexton and said Blaisie land to the lot of one King, containing six acres, more or less.

Said premises will be sold subject to a prior mortgage of $300 to Nathaniel R. Jones, dated October 1, 1905, recorded with Middlesex North District Deeds, Book 352, Page 298. Said premises will also be sold subject to all unpaid taxes, sales, or other municipal liens, if any.

One hundred dollars will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time of sale, and the balance of the purchase price and particulars may be then and there announced.

WILLIAM P. HOLCOMBE, Mortgagee.

Boston, June 5, 1912.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Andrew Sheehan, late of Chelmsford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Thomas H. Sheehan, and that said letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond, and are hereby cited to appear at said Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-seventh day of June, A. D. 1912, at nine o'clock of said Court, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks in the Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a delivery a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

First Judge of said Court, this twelfth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

ROOSEVELT FORCES WEAKENING

PRESIDENT TAFT WHO HOPES TO BE RENOMINATED.

The Republican Delegates
Talk of a Compromise
Candidate

EX-PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT WHOSE FRIENDS TALK OF COMPROMISE CANDIDATE

Exactly four minutes was the duration of the opening session of the third day of the republican national convention. The immense crowd, nearly 14,000 people, who had fought their way into the hall after an hour or more in line, had only to go out again.

The only business done was the prayer and the motion of Watson of Indiana to be in recess until 4 p. m.

The ostensible reason for the recess was the fact that the credentials committee at work upon the contests affecting the personnel of the convention had only fairly begun its work.

that any statement that he has released his delegates is absolutely untrue. Some of the Roosevelt leaders, however, proceeded on the theory that Mr. Post's announcement was correct.

EX-GOV. POST

SAYS THAT ROOSEVELT RELEASED HIS DELEGATES

CHICAGO, June 20.—Former Gov. Regis Post of Porto Rico early today announced that Roosevelt had released his delegates but would remain in the race and this statement was accepted by a number of the Roosevelt leaders.

Conflicting reports came from the Roosevelt headquarters today that Col. Roosevelt had released his delegates from all obligation to vote for him. At 10.50 a. m. he issued a statement which was variously interpreted. The statement reads:

"The time has come when I feel that I must make certain statements not only to the honestly elected members of the republican national convention but to the rank and file of the party and the honest people of the entire nation. I went into this fight for certain great principles. At the moment I can only serve the principles by continuing to bear the personal responsibility which their advocacy has brought me."

CHICAGO, June 20.—The Roosevelt forces in the national convention having at last reached the point where a definite threat to bolt has been made, many of the panic stricken delegates in the city turned desperately today to the task of stirring up sentiment for a compromise candidate. Justice Hughes of the supreme court and Gov. Hadley of Missouri were the names under consideration.

Practically all of the talk of compromise candidates came from the Roosevelt followers. There was evidence early today of a nearly complete disintegration of the Roosevelt forces. They appeared to be fighting desperately. The colonel's quarters were besieged by a mass of his followers and delegates seeking advice.

The conferences of last night had convinced the Roosevelt leaders that comparatively few of their delegates would desert the republican party.

"It looks as though the bottom had dropped out," declared a member of the Roosevelt council today.

Serious Discussion

Serious discussion exists in the Roosevelt camp. Many of the leaders were frank in their declaration that the colonel had acted too hastily in a number of matters in coming to Chicago and in precipitating a bolt from the committee on credentials last night.

It also was stated that there was likely to be a material moderation of the Roosevelt program today. The more conservative members of the factions swept from their feet in the surging desire of the radicals last night to bolt seemed ready today to have the upper hand again. Col. Roosevelt at 1 o'clock this morning told his followers to make but one more stand in the convention, to fight the credentials committee report, and if defeated to hold their own convention.

This advice was received with a whoop by the radicals but with some trepidation by the conservatives.

Col. Roosevelt said this morning that he would issue a statement a little later in the day, probably giving new instructions to his "loyal followers."

The Roosevelt conservatives were a little fearful as to how the Taft people might receive the proposition of a compromise. With the Roosevelt movement apparently crumbling it was believed the Taft people would stiffen up, although there was talk that some of the Taft people, satisfied with having defeated Roosevelt would be content to take a man who had some chance of bringing the factions together.

Francis Heney of California, a Roosevelt leader, said the fight against the "thieves" would be continued in the convention today.

"If the colonel bolts, will he be the progressive republican nominee?" Mr. Heney was asked.

"Ah, cut out the republican," he replied, "what we want is a 'progressive party'."

Hadley To Fight

Gov. Hadley this morning said the fight in the regular convention would go ahead.

"They have got to purge that roll of the crooked delegates today or there will be no further treaty negotiations," was the declaration of Senator Dixon, manager of the Roosevelt campaign, after an early morning conference with his chief.

"It's all over unless the convention is purified. The other side is scared and I think that they will purge the roll by their own motion."

Senator Dixon was considerably excited as he talked of the tense situation. "The future of the party," he declared emphatically, "depends upon the integrity of that convention today. We will not stand for the steam roller any longer."

Treaty negotiations, referred to by Senator Dixon in his statement

were being conducted all night, leaders of the state delegations which probably would not join in a bolt endeavoring to bring order out of the chaotic opposition by procuring some concessions from the Taft forces in control. Governor Deneen of Illinois, Gov. Hadley of Missouri and some of their delegates sought out conservative leaders on the Taft side to see if something could not be done to avoid a party split.

Although the real news of the situation was developing early, a mile away at the hotels, the crowds in and around the Coliseum were in a tense frame of mind. Chief of Police McEwen took personal charge of the police and his orders were so strict and so harshly enforced that even legitimate ticketholders, including newspapermen, were treated as if they were committing a crime in desiring to enter.

For a newspaper correspondent trying to cover alone the news happenings at the hotels and also at the Coliseum the task was simply impossible. Correspondents were held in the crowds at the doors an hour or more while ticking telegraph instruments waited for them inside.

The various delegations began struggling in about 11.30, the crowds at the doors outside forcing them to enter singly. The band began playing popular airs at 11 o'clock and continued until the gavel fell. The music was varied today by a woman singer, who was heartily applauded. Scarcely any notice was taken of the arrival of Chairman Root who stood for a moment, the target for a battery of photographers. The gavel fell a few minutes after noon.

COL. ROOSEVELT

DENIES THAT HE RELEASED HIS DELEGATES

CHICAGO, June 20.—O. K. Davis, connected with the Roosevelt headquarters, emerged from the conference room at noon and said:

"Col. Roosevelt authorizes me to say

It's the gift that is lasting and useful!

The colonel's own statement was so interpreted.

O. K. Davis of the Roosevelt headquarters, however, said he was authorized by the colonel to say the statement as to the release of delegates was absolutely false.

A further conference of the Roosevelt forces was scheduled for 3 p. m. today.

After being in conference with Mr. Roosevelt for half an hour, Gov. Hadley said: "I will continue in the fight on the same lines as I have been following in the convention."

CALIFORNIA MEN

HAVE DECIDED TO WITHDRAW FROM CONVENTION

CHICAGO, June 20.—The California delegation met this morning and prepared a resolution announcing its withdrawal from the convention. The delegates said they would not be bound by the action of "a lot of thieves."

EX-SEN. FLINN

HAS RESIGNED FROM THE REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION

CHICAGO, June 20.—William Flinn, new national committeeman from Pennsylvania and one of Roosevelt's chief lieutenants in the nomination fight, confirmed early today a report that he had left the regular republican organization after the all-night conference with the Roosevelt leaders.

"I'm done with that committee," he said, "that's all there is to it."

SENATOR ROOT

TO BE PERMANENT CHAIRMAN OF CONVENTION

CHICAGO, June 20.—The committee on permanent organization this morning voted to make the temporary organization permanent. This would continue Senator Root as presiding officer and continue all the temporary officials throughout the convention.

The motion to make the temporary organization permanent was made by Governor Pennell of Delaware, whereupon Ira Copley of Illinois moved to substitute, asking that the committee defer action until the report of the committee on credentials had been received and acted on by the convention.

Debate was mild and the Copley motion was lost 7 to 22.

TAFT OPPOSED

HE WILL NOT AGREE TO COMPROMISE CANDIDATE

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Callers at the White house today who could get President Taft to discuss politics said that they were convinced that the president had no thought of agreeing to a compromise candidate at the republican national convention. According to friends who saw him today, Mr. Taft is certain that he will be nominated in Chicago and believes that Col. Roosevelt is beaten.

One member of the cabinet who was an early caller said President Taft had no idea of agreeing to another man, and other callers supported that statement.

PRESIDENT TAFT

REFUSES TO RELEASE HIS DELEGATES

WASHINGTON, June 20.—A report from Chicago reached the White House today saying that President Taft had authorized Senator Crane to release the Taft delegates to the national convention following Col. Roosevelt's action in releasing his. Pres. Taft denied the report and after he talked with Senator Crane over the long distance telephone, White House officials announced that Senator Crane had denied making any such statement.

NEW RULES

TO BE DRAWN UP BY THE COMMITTEE

CHICAGO, June 20.—As a result of the position in which the national committee found itself on the opening of the convention the rules committee today decided to draw up a set of rules to govern the procedure of that committee in the future. The committee adjourned till later in the day to permit Pres. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university to put the new rules into proper parliamentary language.

"THE TEST OF LOYALTY"

GIVEN FINE PRESENTATION

By Pupils of St. Patrick's Boys' Academy Before Large Audience

The pupils of St. Patrick's boys' academy, who for the past thirteen years have annually entertained with the production of plays and always scored great success, appeared at the Academy of Music yesterday afternoon and last evening, and gave "The Test of Loyalty," a comedy in three acts, in a manner that would do credit to professionals. At each performance the theatre was crowded to the doors and the applause accorded the members of the company proved that the piece was greatly enjoyed. The production was under the direction of the Xavierian Brothers, with Bro. Osmund, superior of the school, in charge. Charles D. Sladen acted as musical director of the sanctuary choir. John J. McNabb as dramatic supervisor, and William P. McCarthy, pianist.

The performance in the afternoon was given for the children and incidentally served as a dress rehearsal for the evening entertainment. In the evening the clergy of the parish and the parents and friends of the young actors filled the house to overflowing, and all were well repaid for they saw one of the best amateur productions ever given in Lowell.

The play itself was very interesting, and showed how a high school freshman was unjustly accused of being a thief and as he was the most important man on the football team he declined to play in the "big game" until he could vindicate himself. His fellow players pleaded with him and he was thinking over the affair when the real thief was located and the piece was brought to a happy and pleasing conclusion. The production called for several heavy parts which were capably handled.

The members of the sanctuary choir gave selections of a high order, and the young choristers were the recipients of considerable applause and commendation. The entire program was greatly enjoyed and the remarkable success secured reflects great credit on the brothers, directors, stage men, performers and all concerned.

The cast of characters was as follows:

FINE CONCERT

GIVEN AT THE VESPER-COUNTRY CLUB

A very enjoyable concert was given at the Vesper Country club last night by the recently organized Vesper Musical club. The affair was largely attended, and the program was rendered in such a charming manner that each member brought forth considerable applause.

Mr. Albert E. Brown, the well known baritone, was engaged for the occasion and he charmed his audience with his several artistically rendered vocal selections. The club was in charge of Prof. William P. Hovey, and the members are as follows: Arthur Spaulding, George Spaulding, Luther Paulkner, Charles Hedrick, Harry Pollard, James H. Leighton, Harry Whiting, Manfred Gulline, Frank Bean, Richmond Fletcher and Mr. Wisner.

Everybody's Doing It

A very sensible and commendable wave of economy seems to have struck this city. Almost everybody is forming or joining a Larkin Club of Ten and buying their Soaps, Spices, Teas, Notions, Toilet and Pharmaceutical Preparations, and other household supplies direct from Larkin Co. This enables them to get just what they want for their money as they would at the store, either in the form of a desirable quantity of household supplies for the same money, or by taking the saving in the form of some handsome Premium, of which there are 150 to choose from. The club meetings are made the occasion of a "good time for all" and that is one of the reasons this kind of club is so very popular. If you have not already caught the fever you certainly should get busy and form a Larkin Club of Ten. The extra rewards given by Larkin Co. to anyone conducting such a club make it well worth your time to do so—besides, the money you will save for yourself and your neighbors. Write Larkin Co. today. Ask them for their large Catalog R 25. This describes in full their Club of Ten plan and their Factory-to-Family method of dealing.

Poor little Ziretta, the Day Brightener!

My! my! How did it happen?

Why, the cruel man had just smoked Sister Polly, the Grouch Chaser, and she was so nice he had to have one more.

That's what everybody says about the fascinating, captivating

Columbus avenue, last night, the affair being given under the auspices of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Pilgrimage Congregational church.

At 8 o'clock a delightful entertainment was well rendered by the Boy Scouts, who were ably assisted by Carl Johnson, who took the part of the schoolmaster.

The remainder of the evening was spent in games and sports. Those in charge of the various booths were as follows: Ice cream table, Chester Chase; grab table, Miss Florence Hale and Miss Eva Williams; candy table, Miss Helen Farrington and Miss Mary King; tonic table, Miss Ruby Hall and Miss Harriet Kew; Rev. and Mrs. E. Victor Bigelow were in general charge.

POLICE ON GUARD AT THIS WEDDING

Woman Threatened to Stop Marriage

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 20.—E. Mark Sullivan, assistant United States district attorney of Boston, was married here yesterday in St. Patrick's church, which was guarded by a cordon of police against a Mrs. Annie Mahoney of Boston, who it was announced had threatened to break up his wedding to Miss Catherine Hayes, a society girl.

On account of her repeated threats, which the trouble she already had created indicated she would carry out, Chief of Police M. L. Cadin stationed a cordon of police about the church. Mrs. Mahoney, if she had appeared, would have been prevented from entering the church or making any disturbance.

For the past week Mrs. Mahoney has been in town seeking, it is said, to postpone the wedding.

She has sought to have Mr. Sullivan arrested on a charge of larceny of a set of opal cuff buttons. While trying for a warrant she also declared that Sullivan had charged excessive fees for his services as attorney for her husband.

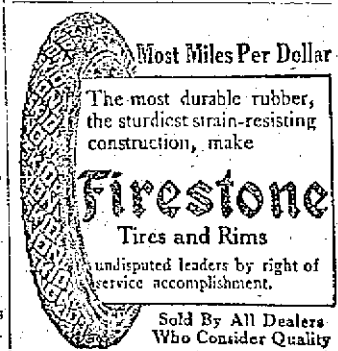

The whole city has been talking about the disturbances Mrs. Mahoney has succeeded in creating. Mrs. Sullivan, who comes from the Hayes family, prominent in social circles here, is extremely popular, and indignation ran high.

duce Miss Hayes to break off the marriage to Mr. Sullivan.

Her arguments became so violent that Miss Hayes had Mrs. Mahoney forcibly ejected from the house. Mrs. Mahoney immediately tried to have Miss Hayes arrested, charged with assault, but was again unable to support her charges.

She then announced that she would get into the church and stop the ceremony. To prevent any such scene police protection was asked and granted.

DETROIT, Mich., June 20.—Miss Newberry, daughter of Truman H. Newberry, who created a nation-wide sensation two weeks ago by jilting Capt. W. H. Alleyne, of the British army, yesterday was married to the son of the vice-president of the Detroit United railway, Frank Brooks, the youth who was the cause of the casting aside of the officer of the Queen's Own regiment.

The affair was almost clandestine in character. There was no announcement, no invitations, no wedding party except a very few of the closest friends of the bride and groom. Mr. Newberry is in Chicago.

At 3 o'clock the couple appeared at the county clerk's office and obtained a marriage licence. Then they entered a motor car and were driven to a church. The bride was attended by one girl friend, W. J. Gray, Jr., acted as best man. No one took the part of giving away the bride.

DELEGATES IN ANGRY MOOD WILD SCENES IN THE HOTELS FIGHT BECOMES MORE BITTER

CHICAGO, June 20.—Delay, uncertainty and confusion faced the delegates as the third day of the republican national convention opened. The quick succession of events late last night and early this morning left a condition of absolute confusion. Even the wisest party strategists did not this morning profess to see into the situation that would result after Chairman Root's gavel fell at noon for the resumption of the convention sessions. With Col. Roosevelt calling upon his followers to disregard the credentials committee and organize for themselves and with the Taft leaders conferring with the friends of possible third candidates, the air was electric with suggestions of heretofore unexpected developments. Wild scenes were resumed here they had been broken off yesterday when the delegates disputed with the scrub women for possession of the hotel lobby floors. Crowding developments in the councils of leaders and closed conference room doors outside the convention hall only partly seen and understood by the body of the delegates throw normally well balanced men in a state of near hysteria, during which they cursed, shouted and gesticulated until quieted by intervention of police. Fendings of the outcome, by members of the various committees selected by the convention postponed their meetings and much delay resulted in this connection. The committees planned to resume their work when developments showed what they could expect to deal with.

Convention Plans
Numerous reports regarding the probable trend of the convention session were of almost every possible nature. One, however, which was general and which was given credence by many of the delegates was that the convention would meet at noon and immediately adjourn until four o'clock only to meet and adjourn again until eight o'clock. The evening for the entire duration revolving around the Roosevelt fight to re-shape itself.

The question of the course finally to be taken by Colonel Roosevelt and his followers was heatedly debated at a meeting of a group of delegates. Those inside the information of the plans of the Roosevelt forces insisted that Col. Roosevelt would lead his followers to another hall to organize a new convention and a new party. Others declared with equal vehemence that the Roosevelt contingent would remain in the Coliseum and attempt to hold a second or double convention on the same floor. There was much speculation as to what would happen if the latter course was pursued. It was pointed out that Chairman Root in such an event might order the police and sergeants at arms to eject the delegates.

To Regain a Healthy, Girlish Complexion

(From the Feminine World)
"If you would have a clear, fresh, girlish complexion, one ounce of ordinary mercurized wax will aid you in this direction more than anything else. It produces a natural beauty. This wax, procurable at any drug store, completely absorbs a bad complexion, revealing the healthy complexion underneath. Its work is done so gradually, day by day, that no inconvenience is caused. The wax is applied at night, and the cold cream removed in the morning with soap and water.
Another valuable rejuvenating treatment—if you have wrinkles or your skin is flabby and saggy—is to bathe your face in a solution of powdered exfolite, 1 oz., dissolved in 1/2 pint of water. This has a fine skin and action in smoothing out the lines and 'turning up' the loosened tissue."

Roosevelt people from the Coliseum for refusing to maintain order and follow the regulations of the convention. It was predicted that serious disorder would occur in case anything of this sort happened.

Roosevelt May Attend

Col. Roosevelt, it was said, would go to the Coliseum in person today and this information led to much speculation as to what effect his presence would have upon the delegates and crowds of spectators in the big convention hall. His visit undoubtedly will cause a sensation and probably will do more than that.

Gov. Record of New Jersey and other Roosevelt leaders announced that it was not necessary for Col. Roosevelt to have a convention as the former president's announcement that he was a candidate was sufficient. They argued that a bolt was not at all a necessary part of the Roosevelt program.

Some of the Roosevelt leaders said that their plan was to go to the convention hall today and demand a re-nomination and demand a re-nomination and demand a re-nomination.

Quote Roosevelt
The greater number of Roosevelt delegates seemed to think, however, that the declaration for independent action made by Col. Roosevelt today precluded any further possibility of delaying the crisis. In this connection they quoted the following excerpt from the colonel's address:
"Don't lie down, even if they do beat you by fraudulent votes. There's no use voting to cut out fraudulent votes and then allow the fraudulent voters to vote.
I hope you then will take the position that you decline longer to submit to having delegates fraudulently seated in the convention allowed to sit as judges in their own cases and allowed to vote on the credentials committee either as a whole or in detail."

"We have elected a fair majority. Don't allow these delegates to swindle you out of your victory. I hope you as the majority of the convention will organize as such.
"You will do it if you have the courage and if you follow your own convictions.
"Don't waste any further time; don't waste any further time."

Taft Men Pleased
The Taft leaders, including Congressman McKinley, the president's campaign manager, expressed great satisfaction at the developments in the Roosevelt controversy. They declared that the president's candidacy for re-nomination had been strengthened greatly by the action of the Roosevelt forces in the last 24 hours. At the same time there were indications in several quarters that the search for a possible third candidate was on in earnest and that the day might bring forth important developments in this relation. A number of names were mentioned in the third candidate gossip in addition to those of Senator Cummins of Iowa and Senator La Follette of Wisconsin. Both the Wisconsin and Iowa organizations were busy with politics for their candidates. Several times it was reported that Senator Crane of Massachusetts had conferred with Senator Kenyon of Iowa regarding the possibility of throwing the Taft strength to Senator Cummins as a compromise candidate.

Iowa Will Not Bolt
Senator Kenyon insisted that Iowa's ten delegates would not bolt the convention, no matter what happened.
"The Cummins delegation never will bolt," said Kenyon. "We think it would be foolhardy to bolt, also I said sincere hopes for the success of Senator Cummins. We have not a fighting chance but we have a good compromise chance. Everything depends upon a deadlock, which we believe will come."

In addition to the announcement by Senator Kenyon that the Iowa delegation would decline to take part in any move toward leaving the convention there were persistent reports that Missouri delegates had come to an agreement to remain in the convention hall regardless of what happened this afternoon. It was said the Missouri delegation had decided to support Gov. Hadley for the presidential nomination and to vote for him on the first ballot but this rumor was denied by some of the Missouri delegates.

U. S. Senator Griggs of North Dakota was authorized for the statement that the North Dakota delegation would refuse to bolt the convention. Also he said that it was his opinion that the Wisconsin delegation would remain in the convention hall as he had discussed the matter with a number of the Wisconsin delegates.
Leaders on both sides of the fight to-day made a complete canvass of each state delegation through its chairman for the purpose of attempting to arrive at a definite decision as to exactly how many delegates would follow Col. Roosevelt out of the convention hall in case of the rumored bolt. Different estimates resulted from these counts, but it was repeatedly asserted that Roosevelt could not control more than 200 votes on a bolt.

Prominent leaders in the Illinois delegation including R. R. McCormick, brother of Medill McCormick, expressed opposition to any bolt program at the conference today.

NEW YORK MEN

TO MAKE STRONG DEMONSTRATION FOR SHERMAN

CHICAGO, June 20.—The New York delegation planned last night to come out today in a strong demonstration for Vice-President Sherman for re-nomination.

The boom has been kept in abeyance since the convention opened but with the developments of the night looking more favorable toward the nomination of President Taft from their viewpoint they decided that today was the logical time to bring forth their candidates for the "running mate" job. So far Gov. Mead of Vermont has been the only active candidate for second position on the Taft ticket. The passive interest of Mr. Sherman regarding the nomination is said to be accounted for by his knowledge that the New York delegation had his candidacy in hand. This is said to have been admitted when the delegation refused to vote for national committee, it being the plan to give the place to the vice-president should he fail of re-nomination.

Gov. Mead's friends said last night that 175 delegates had pledged themselves to him should Taft get the nomination.
Profits of down town hotels for the first two days of the convention were said last night to be the largest since the world's fair in 1893. At the Congress, wherein are located the headquarters of the two leading candidates, it was said the house had the largest number of guests in its history.

"We had in the hotel last night more than 3500 guests, the largest number we ever entertained," said Assistant Manager Burke. The receipts from the convention guests, the hotel managers say, are larger than for any previous gathering of the kind, the cafes and bars doing the bulk of the business.

COL. ROOSEVELT

THANKS WOMAN WHO ATTEMPTED TO STAMPEDE CONVENTION

CHICAGO, June 20.—Col. Roosevelt paused in the middle of a conference with his leaders long enough to thank Mrs. A. W. Davis for attempting to stampede the convention in an effort to get his name in nomination.
"It was a bully piece of work," Col. Roosevelt told Mrs. Davis.
Mrs. Davis was accompanied by A. E. Perry, chairman of the Oklahoma delegation, when she went to the colonel's headquarters.

FOUR LOWELL BOYS GRADUATE

Commencement Exercises Held at Holy Cross Today

WORCESTER, June 20.—Governor Aram J. Pothier of Rhode Island was a recipient of an honorary degree at the annual commencement exercises of Holy Cross college today. The degree of doctor of laws was conferred on Governor Pothier, Rev. William Fitzpatrick of Milton, James B. Carroll of Springfield and David I. Walsh of Pittsburg.

Other honorary degrees awarded were:

Master of arts: Rev. Thomas J. Preston, Thompsonville, Conn.; Dr. Edward Buckley, St. Paul, Minn.; Michael J. Costello, Scranton, Pa.; Walter B. Kennedy, Worcester; Thomas J. Faherty, Boston; John J. Stevens, Worcester; and Nicholas B. Decker, Castorland, N. Y.

Master of science: Francis X. Moore, Oyster Bay, N. Y.

The Lowell Graduates

Quite a number of Lowell people attended the commencement exercises of Holy Cross college at Worcester today. They were the relatives and friends of the Lowell boys who are students there, among the graduates

PATRICK J. REYNOLDS.

being Patrick Joseph Reynolds, Cornelius O'Neill, John Gillick and Edward Hassett. These boys have all distinguished themselves as students, some in one direction some in another. By their work they have reflected credit upon their city; and their families may well be proud of them. A friend of Patrick Joseph Reynolds speaking of his work as a student said: "Young Reynolds, who is a son of Michael Reynolds of Chapel Street, is a very bright young man. A graduate of the Edson grammar and the Lowell High school, he entered Holy Cross college at Worcester four years ago. In college he has been prominently identified with the various societies and was especially strong in athletics of which in his senior year, he was chosen assistant manager. He graduates with high honors having received honorable mention in Latin and mathematics, while winning a medal in organic chemistry and another in biology. He will probably enter Harvard medical school in the fall. Altogether he is a very promising young man, but in saying this much of Mr. Reynolds I do not at all disparage any of the other boys who are all very bright, able and successful students."

BURGLARS BUSY

SILVERWARE WORTH $1200 WAS TAKEN FROM HOUSE

PITTSFIELD, June 20.—Wayside, the country residence of Mrs. William H. Bradford, was entered by burglars yesterday morning and silverware valued at $1200 was stolen from the dining room. The burglars entered through a window on the ground floor at the rear of the house. All the silver service owned by Mrs. Bradford and some articles belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Fairfax and their family were taken. The room was thoroughly ransacked. There appeared to be no attempt to enter other parts of the residence. Burned matches were found on the floor, which indicated that the thieves were poorly equipped and without flash lamps. The robbery was discovered when the servants appeared yesterday morning. Police officers in Lenox, Lee and Pittsfield were notified. Wayside is about a mile and a half north of Lenox on the Pittsfield highway.

UNLICENSED DOGS CAUSED TROUBLE

Owners Were Fined in Police Court

The city clerk, assisted by the police department, is making a strenuous effort to corral all dogs that are not licensed and also to punish the owners for the non-payment of licenses. This morning there were two defendants before the court and in both cases fines were imposed.

Frank J. Harrison was fined $4 and Rose Moran was fined $3. In the Moran case the woman claimed that the dog did not belong to her but that she had fed it and she could not keep the canine away from the house.

Frank B. Riley, a blind man, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Patrolman George Abbott. The man, although unfortunate owing to his affliction, had been addicted to drink and has imposed on many persons and many complaints have been made against him. He was sent to the state farm.

SAGAMORE CAMPERS

ARRANGE FOR DANCING PARTY AT LAKEVIEW TUESDAY

The Sagamore Campers held a meeting at their well appointed cottage on the banks of Lake Massachusett last evening and arranged for their dancing party which will be held at the Lakeview dance hall on Tuesday evening. It was voted to engage Jack Myers, the well known local soloist, to give a series of selections during the evening, and it was also decided to introduce several novelty dances. The members will again meet on Sunday evening, at which time final plans will be made for Tuesday night's party.

TRIAL RESUMED OF HIRST-GAGE CASE

It May Go to Jury This Afternoon

The case of Benjamin Hirst vs. Martha Gage and that of Vida S. Walker vs. the same, an action of tort which was started in superior court a few days ago, was resumed this morning before Judge Stevens. The defense is now on and this afternoon several witnesses are to be called in rebuttal. It is expected the case will go to the jury late this afternoon.

In this case it is alleged that the late Benjamin Hirst was run over by an ice wagon owned by the defendant. The accident, it is claimed, occurred in Perkins street, and in the plaintiff's declaration it is also alleged that Mr. Hirst died some three months after the accident as a result of the injuries. Vida S. Walker is the administratrix of the estate and she seeks to recover for the suffering and death of Mr. Hirst.

The regular men will put in their bids during the day, while the spare men will have their innings on Saturday. According to the rules, the men oldest in the service will be awarded the preference, while the youngsters will take what is left. As several changes have recently been made, it is expected that there will be a great shakeup after this week.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Joseph H. Heathcock and Miss Bertha A. Bond were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bond, 11 Hastings street, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The ceremony took place in the presence of many friends and relatives, including a number from Springfield, Lynn, Boston, Lawrence, Hartford, Conn., and Leominster. Rev. Golden W. Cummings, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white duchesse satin and also a veil. She carried white roses. The bridegroom, Miss Sadie Macdonald, wore pink mesquite with chiffon trimming and carried pink roses. The best man was Mr. William H. Heathcock, a brother of the bridegroom. Wedding music was played by Miss Clara Heathcock, a sister of the bridegroom.

A reception followed the wedding, from 6 to 8 o'clock.

WALKER-WADE

Mr. Vernon Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walker of 12 Methuen street, and Miss Mae Van Scholec Wade, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Rupert Wade of 55 Eighteenth street, were united in marriage at 6:30 last night, at the home of the bride's mother, by Rev. George E. Kennigott of the First Trinitarian Congregational church.

The double ring ceremony was used. The wedding march was played by Miss Jessie Fisher.

The bride wore a gown of white duchesse satin, trimmed with Point de Venise lace and a filmy veil caught up with lilacs of the valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of these dainty flowers.

Both the bride and bridegroom were unattended. The ushers were: Mr. George L. Walker, a brother of the bridegroom; Mr. William Watson Denney, a brother-in-law of the bride, and Mr. Thomas Elliott Benner and Mr. E. Austin Benner, her nephews, and Mr. Alvah J. Baxter.

The young couple left in a shower of confetti, for their wedding tour. On their return they will make their home at 42 Greenfield street, Lawrence. They will be at home to their friends after Sept. 1.

BROWN-SUTCLIFFE

Mr. James T. Brown and Miss Jennie Sutcliffe were united in marriage Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage of the Gorham Street Methodist church. Mr. J. Edward Leith played the Lo-hengrin bridal chorus as the wedding party entered the church and passed through the main aisle. The bride, who was handsomely dressed in white tulle with white lace trimmings and carried sweet peas, was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Joseph Sutcliffe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Nathaniel W. Matthews, pastor of the church. The bridegroom was Miss Sarah A. Potter, who wore lemon colored silk and carried yellow marguerites. The best man was Mr. John Brown, a brother of the bridegroom. Following the ceremony the Mendelssohn wedding march was played by Mr. Leith, as the wedding party left the church. The ushers were Sam Asquith, N. W. Matthews, Jr., Andrew Brown and Willie Dobbis.

RICHARDSON-RAMSAY

Mr. Leon Williams Richardson and Miss Jennie Florence Ramsay were united in marriage last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Ramsay, 35 Gates street, in the presence of relatives and immediate friends. The affair was a pretty home wedding in its best sense. The ceremony took place at 7 o'clock. Rev. Robert Walker, of Concord, performing the double ring service. The wedding music was played by Miss Madella Small of Saugus. The bride was handsomely gowned in white crepe de chine and wore a veil. She carried a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley. Miss Amy G. Bent was the bridesmaid. She wore white over pink and carried pink sweet peas. The best man was Mr. Carl E. Herick of Worcester.

MURPHY-LAWSON

Miss Elizabeth Murphy and Mr. Arthur Lawson were united in marriage at a nuptial mass yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at the cathedral residence of the Immaculate Conception church, by Rev. Lawrence Tighe, O. M. I.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Christine Murphy, of Cambridge. Thomas J. Burns acted as best man. Master Frederick Loughran was the page. The bride was charmingly attired in white embroidered tulle with a white veil, caught with lilacs of the valley, and carried a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley. The bridegroom wore blue messaline with pink chiffon overdress trimmed with cluny lace, carrying a large bouquet of pink Killarney roses.

After the ceremony, the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, 407 High street, where a wedding breakfast was served.

ROUX-HARTNETT

Yesterday morning at a nuptial mass celebrated at 7 o'clock at Notre Dame de Lourdes church by Rev. Fr. LaMoine, O. M. I. Miss Marie Rose Roux and Mr. John Hartnett were united in marriage. The witnesses were Mr. William Hartnett and Miss Marie Roux. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride where a dainty breakfast was served. They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

APPEARANCES VS. FACTS

Almost daily you see advertised special sales of articles at prices which invite comparison. How many people are capable of comparing prices, cut or otherwise? A few, perhaps. What does the price mean concealed by some high sounding name in packages designed to be sold at cut prices?

Ask for the articles you need, get it in lbs., qts., etc., and be assured by the standard maintained by store where you purchase it. Then the prices will speak for themselves.

This is the second of three lists of Household Necessities which we offer for your inspection. One appeared Wednesday, the other comes tomorrow in these columns. Read the list, and take our word that there is a lot about TALBOT'S CHEMICAL STORE you ought to know.

EX-TOWN TREASURER IS HELD IN $5000

He is Charged With the Theft of $5800

SAUGUS, June 20.—Upon a warrant charging him with the theft of $5800 from the town of Saugus, with Chief of Police Charles O. Thompson named as the complainant, Joseph S. Meacum, ex-town treasurer, was arrested by Chief Thompson at his home on Central street last night.

Plans for his arraignment were made some time prior to the visit of Chief Thompson and Judge Moses Case of Marblehead to the Meacum home.

After the complaint had been read by Judge Case, a plea of not guilty was entered by Meacum and he expressed the wish to waive examination. He was held under bonds of $5000 for the grand jury.

Ernest L. Noera, a member of the board of assessors, and Herbert E. P. S. Brier of Cliftondale has not been permitted to leave his home since Monday and has been constantly under police guard.

Judge Case was the trial justice because of the fact that Judge William E. Ludden of the Saugus court is town counsel and has been advising the selection. Mr. Meacum said yesterday that he would make a formal statement later. He expressed confidence that he would be able to vindicate himself of the charge of stealing the town's funds. He claims to have been the victim of unfortunate circumstances.

THOMAS TRAINING HARD

Lowell Boxer Expects to Defeat Dillon

Joe Thomas, of this city, who is matched to meet Jack Dillon at Denver, Colo., on July 4th, is training hard for the bout. He has done all his work in this city doing his road work from the Edison cemetery to Billerica, while his gymnasium workouts are being held at the Gardner gym, on Gorham street. This morning he was seen running in from Billerica at a pretty fast clip. After the run every morning, he has a rub down and a rest and in the afternoons he goes a few fast rounds with some of the local stars. He is in fine condition for the match and is confident of taking the award.

J. JOSEPH HALEY

FORMER LOWELL BOY WINS HONORS AT TUFTS COLLEGE

Among those graduated from Tufts college yesterday was Mr. J. Joseph Haley, formerly a resident of this city and a son of the late J. D. Haley. Mr. Haley was in the civil engineering class and was awarded several honors for excellence in study. He is a graduate of the Butler and high schools and was formerly a lieutenant in the militia here. Mr. Haley is a brother of Dennis F. Haley, who has achieved remarkable success as a mining engineer.

RAZOR SLIPPED

NEW BARBER CUT HIS PATRON'S CHIN

A barber shop in West Centralville was last night the scene of a rather peculiar demonstration, when an insurance agent in order to render a friend a service, undertook to shave him, although he admitted before hand he had never handled a razor in his life. His work, however, was as good as that of any barber until the razor slipped, and he was complimented on the feat.

A young man named Orla Fortier entered the shop at 7.30 o'clock and noticed there were several people ahead of him waiting for their turn. This made him remark that he wished to take a train for Boston. A friend of his named O. J. David, who was telephoning waiting for a chance to get in the chair offered his services saying he had never touched a razor, but if his friend was willing to take the chance he would shave him.

Mr. Fortier accepted the offer and sat in a vacant chair and immediately Mr. David, lathered his face in great style. Then he called for a razor and shaved his man in five minutes. The only inconvenience being when the razor slipped and inflicted a slight wound on Mr. Fortier's chin, but the latter did not mind it a bit so long as he could catch his train. Mr. David was complimented on the job, and many who were in a hurry were willing to take a chance, but the new barber refused, saying he would rather sell an insurance policy than shave a man.

LAWYER JONES FOUND

In London Three Years From Loss of Memory

LONDON, June 20.—Luther Maynard Jones, former law partner of the late William Whitney and the first secretary of the Yale Alumni association, was found today in Streatham infirmary after a disappearance of three years, due to loss of memory caused by abscesses on the brain.

Mr. Jones came here several years ago in connection with an important lawsuit, but was compelled to give up practice owing to brain trouble.

J. R. Quinn, of Ottawa, a lifelong friend, found Mr. Jones today as the result of a year's search.

FOUR WERE INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

The Rev. Dr. Chalmers of Manchester, N. H., Was Driving the Machine

A rather serious accident occurred near the windmill on the Pawtucket boulevard about five o'clock this morning when a Regal car owned and operated by Rev. Dr. Thomas Chalmers, pastor of the First Congregational church of Manchester, N. H., turned turtle and the occupants of the car were thrown out.

While the cause of the accident is unknown, it is known that the machine had no chains and the accident was either due to skidding or the collapse of one of the wheels.

Dr. Chalmers was hurried to the Lowell General hospital where upon examination it was found that he was suffering from a fracture of several ribs and probably internal injuries.

Mrs. Jennie Fontaine, matron at the Pawtucket sanatorium, and her son, Henri, aged three years, escaped with slight bruises but the other occupant of the car, Helen Connors, a maid at the sanatorium, had her right wrist broken.

The injured were taken in the ambulance to the Lowell General hospital, where they received attendance.

Rev. Dr. Chalmers is well known throughout the New England states and was very active in protesting against betting at Rockingham park in Salem, N. H. Last night he presented the diplomas to the graduates of the Manchester high school and arose early this morning in order to go to his summer home at Hyannisport, Mass.

The clergyman, accompanied by Mrs. Fontaine and her son and Miss Connors, left the Queen City shortly after four o'clock and were traveling along the boulevard at a fair rate of speed when all of a sudden the machine turned turtle. None of the occupants of the car is able to realize how the accident happened, but the condition of the wheels would signify that the machine either skidded or one of the rear wheels collapsed. Inasmuch as the car is the underslung pattern and is low to the ground it is difficult to learn how it overturned.

Employees of the water works department were the first to arrive on the spot and the ambulance was telephoned for and the occupants of the machine were taken to the hospital.

ROOSEVELT MEN RETURNED TO MEETING OF COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS

CHICAGO, June 20.—Roosevelt members of the credential committee acting under the suggestion of Col. Roosevelt returned to the meeting of that committee today. Their statement last night that they "had left the committee for good" was followed by a decision to go back and participate in the hearing of contest cases.

Under the revised rules the Roosevelt men, who had been on their chief points, namely to secure the introduction of new evidence and to secure greater time for debate.

WORCESTER, June 20.—Lowell won from Worcester yesterday afternoon by the score of 4 to 2. The Grays got on to the shoats of Van Dyke, the star pitcher of the Bulsters, who is also one of the best in the league, and after hitting the lanky pitcher all over the lot, Kesses yanked him in on the fifth, and Wilson was sent in. Maybom pitched for Lowell and was in fine form. De Groff, had a fine day at bat, getting a three bagger and a home run in three times at bat. Lonergan at short for Lowell put up a classy game, pulling off some great stunts and killing some seemingly sure hits.

Lowell started right off the reel and got two runs in the first inning. Clemens went out on a bunt. Miller then doubled to right. Babe De Groff was next up and after inspecting a few of Van's curves, he landed on one that went over the bull in centre field and both men scored.

In Worcester's half Nye, formerly of Lowell, started off with an infield hit and he went to second on a sacrifice by Jacobs. Shorten hit to Lonergan, who threw Nye out at third. Aubrey went out on a grounder.

In the fourth Lowell got one more when Boulters opened with a single and went to second on a pretty sacrifice by Lonergan. After Lavigne fled out to Haas, Maybom singled and Jakla came home. Miller ended the inning by going out on a grounder to Van Dyke.

Lowell got another in the fifth. De Groff got a triple, and McGamwell scored him on a single. Magee hit into a double play, Nye, Aubrey to Haas and Boulters closed with a grounder.

In the fifth Worcester got one. Wilson and Haas went out on flies to Magee. Kihullen hit to Maybom, who made a desperate attempt to land his man, but threw badly and the runner went to second and he took third on a wild pitch. Van Dyke walked and as he took quite a lead, Maybom tried to get him, but McGamwell dropped the ball and the man on third scored. Nye then went out on a fly.

Worcester got one more run in the seventh. Crum singled but went out at second when Wilson hit to Boulters. Kihullen hit one that Jakla didn't get and both were safe. Flaherty singled and Wilson scored. Nye retired the side when he hit to Lonergan who tossed the ball to second. There was no more scoring.

YOUNG STONE BACK FROM NEW YORK

Lowell Boxer Made a Great Impression

Young Stone, the well known local boxer, returned home last evening from New York, where he met four men and won all his bouts. While in the vicinity of the "big burg" Stone was under the management of Jimmy Mahan of Lowell, who also looked after the interests of Young Boyle and two other Lowell boys. Stone showed up well in all his bouts, and made a big hit with the fight fans in New York and New Jersey. Stone entered the ring in all his bouts at 133 pounds and was in great condition. He showed that he was well acquainted with the game, and in three of his contests he won by the "K. O." route. His last bout was at Perth Amboy, N. J., and he met Silent Norton, who was heralded as a real champion. The Lowell boy got the jump on his man at the start and after showering him with rights and lefts for a minute the New Jersey lad dropped to the floor for the count of ten. Stone was given a great hand and he received several offers to go to New York in the fall.

He arrived in Lowell last night and is looking the picture of health and feeling fine. He will rest up for a while and will then take another trip to the metropolis.

Keen Interest Being Taken in
Running High Jump at Olympiad

GEORGE HORINE

Much interest is centred in the running high jump event at the Olympic games. No foreigner seems to have the slightest chance to win this contest, as the United States is so strongly represented. Still, the winner does not stand out. Up until a short time ago George Horine, the Californian, was picked to win the event with ease. But of late several other stars have popped up. Among them are Egon Erickson and the Indian, Jim Thorpe.

Although Horine set a new world's mark for the high jump when he went over the bar at 6 feet 7 inches, in later trials he did not do so well and was beaten several times at 6 feet 2. It is the opinion of the experts that he had a little too much of it and went stale. Should he not recover, his form in Sweden the event will be well looked after by Erickson and Thorpe. In his city two days before the team sailed on the Finland the Indian went over the bar at 6 feet 5 inches.

DRESSED AS MAN
WOMAN ARRESTED BY BOSTON
POLICEMAN

BOSTON, June 20.—Without a touch of effeminacy in her actions, a woman dressed as a man attracted the attention of (Patrolman Campbell in Bowdoin square about 11 o'clock last night.

The "man" whose movements were improperly directed, was taken in tow by the officer and sent to the station house in the patrol wagon. Up to that time everything indicated that the prisoner was a man.

In the Joy street station, when Campbell removed the prisoner's straw hat, he was amazed to find a wealth of hair. He told Lieutenant Goff that the "man" was a woman.

When asked her name she said "Jeanne Jones"; willingly she gave her age as 42, and said she resided on Charles street.

When she arrived at the city prison on Somerset street, the attendant looked upon the gay masquerader filled with wonderment and then with surprise. She was locked up for the night, but before she appears in court she will have an opportunity of changing her attire.

LAWRENCE HIGH
WON FROM LOWELL

In Yesterday's Game by
Score of 8 to 3

The Lawrence high school team came to Lowell yesterday afternoon and played the local school team at Washington park, the visitors winning by the score of 8 to 3. The game was won by Lawrence principally through the great pitching of Higgins who allowed Lowell but two hits.

Lawrence had no difficulty to solve the henders of the Lowell twirlers, piling up ten fine singles. Lawrence also played a better fielding game than the locals, the Lawrence boys making one error while Lowell pined up a quartet of misplays. The Lawrence team showed up to be fast in about every department of the game. They stole five bases and were full of life all the time.

The only Lowell men to connect with hits were Capt. Cawley and Desmond, each managing to get a hit. Kennis, Westland and Burnham each got two hits for Lawrence, and but two players on the visiting team did not connect. The game was witnessed by a large crowd and all were satisfied that the Lawrence boys played rings around Lowell and that they should take the victory. The score:

LABORERS WIN

JURY RETURNED A VERDICT
AGAINST CONTRACTOR

BOSTON, June 20.—Ruben Gorelik, contractor, of Chambers street, was found guilty of non-payment of wages by a jury in the superior criminal court yesterday before Judge Chase, his prosecution being the first of the kind in this state.

Gorelik was found guilty of the offence in two counts under the acts of 1911, chap. 208, in the Brighton court, and was fined $20 on each count.

TAFT MEN SCORE AGAIN ON THE SECOND TEST VOTE

The President Adds to Majority
He Had on the First Roll-call Tuesday

CHICAGO, June 20.—The Taft forces won a far more significant victory in the convention yesterday than that which they won Tuesday in the vote making Senator Root temporary chairman. They surprised themselves and staggered their opponents.

On a motion to table a Roosevelt motion forbidding 75 delegates whose seats are contested from taking part in deciding their right to their seats, the Taft side polled 664 votes against 610 from the Roosevelt-La Follette-Cummins delegations. This is a gain of six over the vote for Senator Root and the Taft managers confidently believe the ghost of a Roosevelt stampede has been laid.

Having held their strength against Mr. Roosevelt's assault on two minor issues, they feel assured that they have him beaten on the main question, which, of course, is the nomination. They declared last night that the president must take a beating or bolt. Among the delegates voting with the Taft people yesterday were five Illinoisans, seven Marylanders and two Oregonians, who are instructed to vote for Mr. Roosevelt for president and two No. Dakotans instructed for La Follette. Assuming that all these 19 men will obey their instructions on the presidential ballot, Mr. Taft is still apparently left with 645 votes or two more than are necessary to a choice.

MISSING LINDSAY BOY IS WITH THE MAZDAZNANS

He Has Been Located in the Temple at Montreal—Is
With His Mother

MONTREAL, June 20.—With His Humbleness Doctor Ottoman Zaradusht Hanish, the "master" of the Mazdaznans, during his stay in Montreal, is 12-year-old Willie Lindsay, whom detectives of the state of Illinois have been seeking for weeks. Relatives of the boy early this year instituted proceedings in the Chicago courts to have his guardianship taken from his mother and Hanish and have him turned over to his uncle, Charles F. Lusk. Mrs. Lindsay, it was claimed, on account of her devotion to the Mazdaznan leader and cult, was not a fit and proper person to be entrusted with the care of the boy. The Illinois courts ruled accordingly.

Then Mrs. Lindsay and her son disappeared from Chicago. Every state and Montreal were searched in vain. North and son were believed to have gone to South America. Mrs. Lindsay and her son were welcomed here by the adherents of Dr. Hanish and kept here until the arrival of the high priest last week. When seen yesterday Willie Lindsay looked none the worse for his experiences and with his mother seemed in the best of health and spirits. He is apparently very fond of Dr. Hanish, to whom he alludes as the "master." Young Lindsay takes part in the ceremonies of the Mazdaznans and acts as an acolyte at the altar of the cult. Hanish, in giving his testimony before the Chicago courts, testified that he was born in Persia in 1844. In a lecture here on Omar Khayyam, however, he uttered no Persian. He admitted he knew none. If it was information respecting Omar Khayyam, his life and his writings that the audience desired, any one of them would have learned more by staying at home and reading a dictionary of biography.

The 14th semi-annual Gahanbar and peace congress of Mazdaznan is now in session at the Montreal Mazdaznan "embassy."

CHURCH DEBT IS WIPED OUT

25th Anniversary of the Centralville M. E.
Church

The Centralville M. E. church was the scene last night of a happy gathering, and an incident of the joyous occasion was the burning of a cancelled paper representing a debt of $4500 upon the church building. The event marked the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the church and the church now stands free of debt. The anniversary supper was served at 6:20 o'clock by the Ladies Aid society, Mrs. Russell Fox, president. Rev. J. T. Carlyon, the pastor, presided. There were present several friends from other denominations and the speakers were four clergymen of city churches, Rev. F. H. Macdonald of the Fifth Street Baptist church, Rev. George F. Kennerly of the First Presbyterian, Rev. Charles T. Billings of the First Unitarian, and Rev. M. B. Lytle of St. Paul's M. E. church.

During an intermission between the addresses, Mrs. N. J. Marcotte sang two solos, Russell M. Fox accompanying.

The jubilation closed with the burning of the cancelled note, after the treasurer, E. P. Bryant, had held it up to the view of the audience, and the President Fox touched a match to the paper, to celebrate its cremation. The meeting was then closed with the benediction by the pastor.

FRIEND OF COLONEL BRYAN MAY BE PERMANENT CHAIRMAN

Of the Democratic National Committee—Parker May be the Temporary Chairman

BAITMORE, June 20.—Members of the arrangements committee meeting today to name the temporary officers of the coming democratic national convention faced the opposition of William J. Bryan to the selection of Judge Alton B. Parker of New York for temporary chairman, who had been practically agreed upon.

Several committeemen openly asserted this morning that a majority of their number were determined to name Mr. Parker notwithstanding the attitude of Col. Bryan, who yesterday sent word over the telephone from Chicago to his friends here that he was opposed to Parker on the ground that he was a conservative and that as the party was progressive in spirit a progressive should be chosen to make the keynote speech.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tarranmany hall, telephoned here early today that the New York delegation had put forward Judge Parker's name and that they wanted a fight made to select him. It was generally accepted that should Judge Parker be named by the committee the fight would be carried to the floor of the convention where it will then be determined at the opening session whether the so-called progressives or the conservatives are to name the presidential nominee and construct the party platform.

Theodore A. Bell of California, a friend of Col. Bryan, was talked about today as likely to be named as permanent chairman of the convention.

Just what candidates, if any, the Clark and Wilson forces will put forward for temporary chairman for consideration by the arrangement committee was not known early today.

an individual. The amount was $4500. Treasurer Bryant held the tray, upon which the note was deposited, and President Fox touched a match to the paper, to celebrate its cremation. The meeting was then closed with the benediction by the pastor.

man and that the committee would go through with the plan. Seven of the committeemen said they thought that the matter would be taken to the convention floor. It was informally proposed this morning as a possible solution of the question that Col. Bryan be named permanent chairman.

W. F. McCoombs, leader of the Wilson forces, said that the Wilson people had no candidate for temporary chairman and would abide by the committee's selection.

ROOSEVELT MEN BOLT MEETING ON CREDENTIALS

CHICAGO, June 20.—Roosevelt members of the credential committee, acting under the specific orders of Col. Roosevelt, broke out of the committee room at 10.30 o'clock last night after trying to beat open the doors and bring all newspaper men into the room.

The doors of the committee room were suddenly thrown open by J. J. Sullivan of Ohio, who rushed out with the cry "All Roosevelt men walk out." He was followed by Hugh T. Halbert of Minnesota, Francis J. Heney of California, George L. Record of New Jersey and other Roosevelt men. As they pushed open the swinging doors after Sullivan they cried out to the newspaper men: "All newspaper men come inside and see what they are trying to do to us."

Mr. Taylor, assistant sergeant-at-arms, shouted to the doorkeeper to admit no one. The Roosevelt forces shouted again for every one to come in. Mr. Taylor called for policemen, who pushed their way through and kept the crowd from getting in.

The Roosevelt men rushed from the room, declaring they were acting under orders from Col. Roosevelt.

"Everybody go to the Florentina room at the congress," shouted one man. They rushed out, followed by the crowd and in the street outside of the Coliseum they were overtaken by Secretary William Hayward.

"Why did you act that way?" he demanded of Heney. "Why didn't you wait until some rules had been passed?"

"We are acting under the direct orders of Col. Roosevelt," retorted Heney.

Obeying the "General"

"We are obeying a better general than you," shouted George L. Record of New Jersey. "He told us to leave that room and we did it."

Hugh T. Halbert declared the break came as the result of the refusal of the majority in the committee to open up all evidence in the cases. Mr. Halbert presented resolutions asking that the temporary roll of the convention be considered as only prima facie evidence of the right of delegates to sit; and that all evidence, testimony and the like be gone into.

He declared the committee refused to do this and attempted to "gag" the minority by making rules that would have left the action of the national committee practically decisive in all cases.

Mr. Heney came back into the lobby and urged the Roosevelt delegates to go to the Florentina room of the congress, where the Roosevelt headquarters are located, and be heard by the members of the credential committee representing Roosevelt.

Believing they had acted too hastily, some of the Roosevelt men, including Mr. Halbert, returned to the committee room after a short conference in the street. While Mr. Record and Mr. Heney declared they were acting under Mr. Roosevelt's direction, others believed they should have remained until definite action was taken by the committee upon the time for argument and the character of evidence to be considered.

Police Block Garfield

R. R. McCormick of Chicago also remained in the committee room.

Mr. Halbert declared they would stay until they had obtained a vote on his resolution for consideration of all evidence in the contest cases and would then again leave.

James R. Garfield of Ohio, former secretary of the interior, came to the door, and attempted to enter the room. It was understood he had some message from Col. Roosevelt. The policemen and doorkeepers thrust him back, although one of the committeemen attempted to pull him in.

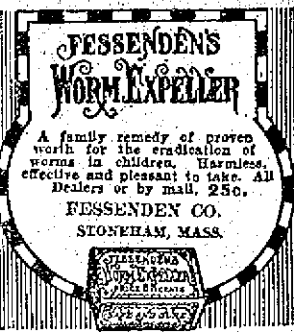

With the aid of Ormsby McHarg he was ushered into a committee waiting room through a side door.

The majority of the bolters later were induced to return to the committee room, but the Roosevelt men made it clear that they would leave in a body unless they were conceded their point.

STAFF CHOSEN FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL REVIEW FOR NEXT YEAR

The final number of the Review was issued today. The Review is a monthly magazine printed entirely by pupils of the high school. It consists of short stories, social news, editorials, jokes, knockouts and sporting news. The editors are all members of the senior class. At the close of each year members in the following class are chosen to succeed them. Only those who have contributed material for the paper are eligible for election. It is very evident that next year's Review will be up to the standard of the Review this year. The editors are all class leaders and are capable of issuing a magazine that will be a source of pride and credit to the high school.

HELD A PLEASANT LAWN PARTY LAST EVENING

The Baraca class of the First Trinitarian Congregational church gave an enjoyable lawn party last night at the home of Mrs. Frances S. Kennesson, 90 Chestnut street.

The lawn was dotted here and there with little refreshment booths, and overhead were strung, from tree to tree, long rows of glowing Japanese lanterns, throwing a rosy glow in the darkness. Games were played and the young people enjoyed themselves thoroughly until a late hour.

The teacher of the class, Mrs. Kennesson, and the class president, Mrs. Walter Murrey, had charge of the general arrangements.

Those in charge of the several booths were as follows: Cake table, Mrs. J. M. Stanton and Mrs. Gladys Goodrich; ice cream booth, Mrs. Adeline Kilpatrick; Mrs. Annie McKinley and Mrs. Charles F. Barlow; candy table, Miss Jessie McAdams and Miss Edna Benson; tonic table, Miss Mary Claus and Miss Jessie McAdams, assisted by Mr. J. C. McCrae, who acted as announcer and did the dispensing; the ticket takers were Miss Grace Peard and Mrs. Kennesson, and the ticketing was done by Mrs. Walter Murrey, Mrs. Adeline Kilpatrick and Mr. Charles Magie.

During the evening a hurdy hurdy under the direction of Mrs. Walter Murrey and Mrs. Rosalind Cashion, played popular melodies and furnished a tuneful background for the gaiety of the occasion.

LARCENY CHARGED

CLAIRVOYANT PLACED UNDER ARREST AT WORCESTER

WORCESTER, June 20.—Charged with theft of $500 worth of diamonds and jewelry from Mrs. Emma Eaton of this city, Richard L. Drexell, who for several months did business at 43 Park street as a clairvoyant, was arrested Tuesday last by Hartford, Conn., by Inspector G. J. O'Neil of the Worcester police. Drexell was doing business as a clairvoyant in Hartford under the name of Robert Morwood, and the police say that he is wanted in several other cities on similar charges.

While in Worcester Drexell had a large clientele of women, and it is said he got jewelry and diamonds from several other women. He left the city suddenly about a month ago.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The concluding week of The Temple Players at the Merrimack Square Theatre finds that organization in a bright musical novelty entitled "A Night at the Cabaret" in which the various members of the cast are seen to excellent advantage. Miss Hawthorne, Miss Nichols, Miss Wood, James Byrnes, Richard Stead and the other members of the company are all heard in most enjoyable numbers. It is with regret that the patrons of the theatre heard of the departure of this organization but there has been some satisfaction in knowing that in their place the management has been fortunate in securing the services of The Harvard Stock company, that is to present some of the latest and best plays of the season. This company has recently completed a 40 weeks' engagement at Cambridge, and its members include some of the best known members of stock in the east. Their presentation for the first three days of next week will be "The Belle of Virginia," a story of the blue and the gray, while the last three days "Ismael," or "In the Depths," will be presented.

The list of plays to be given during the remainder of the season include some of the choicest known to the theatrical world and should serve to provide pleasurable enjoyment for the patrons.

LeRoux, character change artist and impersonator, is without a superior on the vaudeville stage, and Claude Austin, comedy juggler, is especially clever. Miss Alice Bagley, in illustrated song, is scoring a big hit. The photograph for the last three days of the week will be in keeping with the high standard established by the rest of the bill. The same policy of the past, in respect to a continuous performance from 1.30 to 10.30 o'clock daily, will be continued by the management. Photographs and illustrated songs, will be given in connection with the presentation of the stock company. Remember that this is the "coolest spot in town."

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM?

Nobody, so far as we know, seems to take any interest in the republican platform to be adopted at Chicago. In fact the idea of a platform seems to have dropped out of sight. It may be that as Mark Hanna once remarked, "republican platforms are provided for election purposes only." Nevertheless, the republican party has always been in the habit of adopting some substantial platform at its conventions and disregarding it after election. The main features of the platform adopted at the last two conventions were either ignored completely or deliberately violated. The republican pledges to the people on the tariff were deliberately violated in the Payne-Aldrich tariff law. Even under President Taft many of the party pledges were openly ignored.

At Chicago the real contest is a scramble for office between the followers of Roosevelt and those of President Taft. Those who are in office wish to remain, and those who are out wish to get in. The cardinal principle of the republican party for the past twenty-five years has been the acquisition of the spoils and the distribution of special privileges in lieu of large campaign contributions.

The trusts apparently have less to fear in this election than they have had for many years past. They feel that the Sherman act has been bereft of all its terrors, and it is no longer a menace to their monopolistic extortions. The fangs of this law that once held the trusts in awe have been drawn by the supreme court, and now the worst evil that can befall any of the trusts under this law is a matter of reorganization on paper.

Several of them have gone through the ordeal, and find themselves as much of a trust as before. The Standard Oil trust is a notable example. Why should any other trust dread the operation of a law whose heaviest penalty is a slight modification in the abstract form of organization? But the business of the trusts can go on practically the same as ever. This explains why there is no alarm among the trusts over the prospective action of the republican convention.

President Taft has left some things in his administration to be straightened out. One of them is the enforcement of the food and drugs act of 1906. Dr. Wiley was enforcing this law until he was driven out of the department of agriculture by Secretary Wilson and Lawyer McCabe. Since his departure the advocates of embalmed beef and benzoate of soda have things entirely their own way; and this state of affairs will probably continue until the people rise up and demand a strict enforcement of the law, which can never be accomplished under Secretary Wilson and his present assistants. Wilson should long ago have been removed from office, and if President Taft had done his duty Dr. Wiley would have been retained.

This, however, is but one of the great many matters that demand immediate attention. Something must be done to regulate immigration and distribute the immigrants where they are needed throughout the country in order to increase the supply of labor on the farms. One of the alleged causes of the high cost of living is a shortage in the crops. This can be remedied only by increasing the labor supply in the agricultural districts. The federal government by directing immigration to the farm districts can do much to increase the area under cultivation and even the product per acre.

There is little prospect at the present time or even in the immediate future of any relief from the high cost of living. Yet the republican party at Chicago pays no attention to this or other needs of the people. The fight for the offices is too bitter to allow consideration of the real questions that concern the welfare of the people throughout the land. It is plain that the interests of the people and of the nation at large demand a change in the administration that will drive the republican party into retirement, and put in control of the government a party that will stand for the welfare and prosperity of the whole people.

THE MENACE OF ROOSEVELT

There was a time when the people of this country respected Roosevelt, but that day is gone, and why?

Because he has descended to the methods of the most unscrupulous demagogue; because while he shouts vociferously against the bosses and the machine, he welcomes the worst of the bosses to his camp, and he himself has developed into the most dangerous boss in the country. Mustered under his banner are the most radical elements in the land today, the worst and most dangerous classes in all the political parties, including some that are more anarchistic than political.

He has appealed to the lowest instincts of the mob, and he has made charges against Taft that he knows to be false or unjust, charges that so far as they are damaging would apply to a far greater extent to Roosevelt himself.

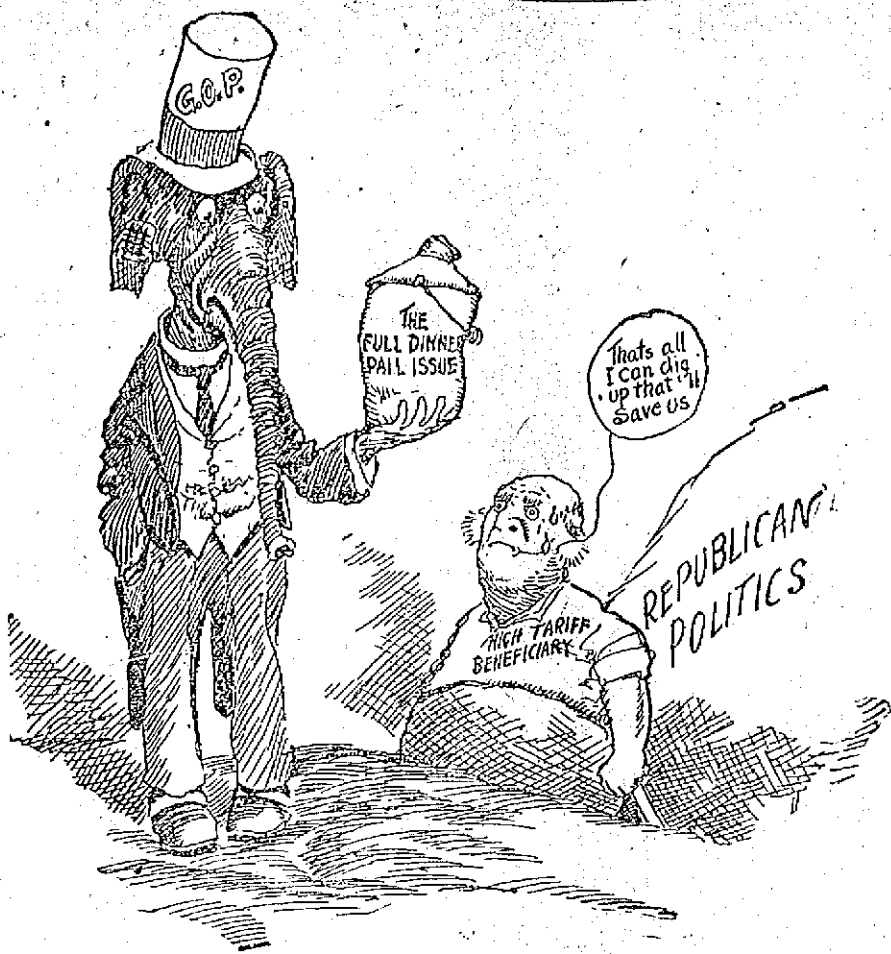

The charge that Taft is with the bosses against the people applies less to Taft than any other president this nation has had for a dozen years. The charge that Taft commits the government of this country not to the people but to a representative part of the people is a piece of claptrap of the worst kind. It is a distortion of the president's words as he explained in his address at the Opera House in this city. The meaning of that phrase which by the way is not correctly quoted by Roosevelt or the Rooseveltian sheiks is, that the people rule the country not directly but through their representatives.

Roosevelt would overturn the constitution and would not only have direct legislation but would even submit the decisions of the supreme court to the people for approval or rejection. Where or when in this country did any sane man ever propose such absurdities?

Not socialism in its worst form is half so dangerous as these nostrums put forward by Theodore Roosevelt in his appeal to the masses for the nomination for president of the United States.

No longer do we hear much objection to the third term. The coming dictator will break through all the established customs and even through the constitution if he gets the chance. What is most alarming in the situation is the extent to which he controls the mob on the republican side. It is the mob that favors a man who is likely to make trouble, likely to reward his followers and to put the rowdy in the saddle. It is true that the nation is today confronted with a serious crisis in the rise of ultra radicalism led by a most dangerous man, once trusted and honored by the people of the United States.

The I. W. W. and their attempt to precipitate a social revolution, the populists, the socialists and the anarchists are all together of little account in comparison with Roosevelt, his methods and his dangerous preachments. It will be a great triumph for conservatism and fairly safe leadership if Roosevelt be defeated at Chicago, but otherwise, the republican party will have committed suicide by dashing its bark to pieces upon the rocks of radicalism.

AS DEAD AS YORICK'S SKULL

Seen and Heard

Prof. Jos. Fredette, formerly leader of the Opera House orchestra but now at the Kasino has composed a march that bids fair to be whistled by all Lowell when it comes before the public. The few friends who have heard it are already whistling it and those who dance claim that it will be the two-step hit of the season. Mr. Fredette at present is preparing the orchestration of his composition and it will be given its first public rendition by the Kasino orchestra in a few days. Mr. Fredette has refused a substantial cash offer for its sale outright and will have it published through a Boston firm in a week or more.

It looks like a safe and sane Fourth all right.

Teddy is the real bear at the convention all right.

ACCORDING TO THE PROVERB

"Early to bed and early to rise"

Was a saying he never forgot;

He wished to be healthy and wealthy and wise,

But, to tell the truth, he was not.

He always was careful to look ere he leaped,

And he always thought twice ere he spoke,

But he never got much for the crops that he reaped.

And few were the records he broke.

He never crossed bridges before they were reached,

His candle ne'er burned at both ends;

He endeavored to practice the things that he preached,

He was careful in choosing his friends;

He remembered the rolling stone proverb and stayed in one little spot all his life.

But his heels were run down and his trousers were frayed,

And his neighbors all pitted his wife.

MORAL:

There's a lesson these few simple verses reveal.

Whoever peruses may find it;

The proverb is good, but a very great deed.

Depends on the man who's behind it.

"O, Mrs. Watts, you should join our literary society."

"Should I?"

"Yes, indeed. We study and learn so much. Last meeting we took up Carlyle's quarels with his wife."

"It must have been interesting."

"Very. Next meeting we shall investigate the private life of Goethe and his love affairs."

"How instructive!"

"Yes, and we have found out everything about Poe's dissipation and disreputable conduct and propose soon to thoroughly investigate the actions of Voltaire."

"Indeed!"

"O, there's nothing like a literary society to increase one's culture. You ought to join."

The Rev. J. F. O'Callaghan, the distinguished-looking, gray-haired priest, whose short, calm invocation of the divine blessing was the incongruous prelude of the tumult which immediately spread over the convention, has special claims to the interest of Massachusetts folk. He was born in Salem and is a product of its schools. He was one of a family which sent six sons through Harvard college. Graduating at Cambridge in the class of 1888, he took up his studies for the priesthood at the Paulist school connected with the Catholic university at Washington. The Paulist order, founded by Fr. Hecker of Concord and Brook Farm fame, addresses itself to the task of converting non-Catholics. A brilliant speaker, this missionary work occupied Fr. O'Callaghan for the first seven or eight years of his priesthood. He travelled all over the country delivering propagandist addresses. For the last few years, however, he has been settled over the Paulist church in Chicago. Fr. O'Callaghan was the first Catholic priest to preach in Appleton chapel, Harvard. This he did at the express invitation of President Eliot. He is a prominent figure in the civic

THE BUNGALOW

The ants are in the butter dish, the flies are in the cream.

The only water we can get is carried from the stream.

The farmers will not sell their eggs—they say they salt them down—

And all their fruit and vegetables they send away to town.

The planks beneath our rugs are full of cracks both deep and wide.

And snails and slugs and crawling bugs come creeping up inside.

I found a caterpillar once encamped upon my toe.

But that is what you must expect when in a bungalow.

We cannot sit upon the porch, a hornet's nest is there;

At every sound they all come out with fierce and angry air.

The shingle roof is leaky, too; you wake and find the bed is soaking from the shower bath in action overhead.

My face and arms are all tattooed with raw mosquito bites.

And concerts by the owls and frogs make horrible the nights.

But when we write to city friends we say:

"Why don't you go and buy an acre in the woods and build a bungalow?"

During his last visit to this country Henri Vignaud, for so many years our secretary of embassy at Paris, told a story of one Renaud, who came to Paris as senator from a district in the Pyrenees.

Renaud engaged a room at a hotel in Paris and paid a month's rent—200 francs—in advance. The proprietor asked him whether he would take a receipt.

"A receipt is unnecessary," said Renaud. "God has witnessed the payment."

"Do you believe in God?" sneered the host.

"Most assuredly," replied Renaud. "Don't you?"

"Not I, monsieur."

"Ah," said Renaud, "in that case please make me out a receipt!"

At every monthly period I had to stay in bed four days because of hemorrhages, and my back was so weak I could hardly walk. I have been taking Lydia E. Brownsville, Ind.—"I can say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me more good than anything else. One doctor said I must be operated upon for a serious female trouble and that nothing could help me but an operation."

"I had hemorrhages and at times could not get any medicine to stop them. I got in such a weak condition that I would have died if I had not got relief soon."

"Several women who had taken your Compound, told me to try it and I did and found it to be the right medicine to build up the system and overcome female troubles."

BRYAN IS OPPOSED

TO JUDGE PARKER

Does Not Want Him for Chairman

BALTIMORE, June 20.—Opposition developed unexpectedly last night against the naming of Judge Alton B. Parker of New York for temporary chairman of the democratic national convention. While a majority of the committee on arrangements, which will select today the temporary officers of the convention, were favorable to the selection of Judge Parker, it became known last night that at informal conferences of members of the committee friends of William J. Bryan had come out against Judge Parker's selection and that a new choice might have to be made.

The statement was made by those opposed to Judge Parker's selection that he was a conservative, and that a progressive man should make the keynote speech.

Mr. Bryan was said to have communicated his views by telephone from Chicago yesterday. Leaders of the movement to nominate Champ Clark for president planned to hold a meeting in Washington and determine whether they should present a candidate for temporary chairman. The Wilson leaders were uncertain whether they would have a candidate.

The committee felt that it was desirable to maintain harmony. There were reports that the question of the temporary chairmanship might be brought before the convention for settlement.

Friends of Representative Oscar Underwood of Alabama became actively engaged yesterday in seeking to bring about his nomination for president. Senator Bankhead of Alabama came over from Washington and conferred with the national committee men here. Clark Howell, national committeeman from Georgia, the oldest member of the national committee in point of service, having served 20 years, arrived here yesterday and was soon engaged in numerous conferences.

Mr. Howell, who has just been re-elected a member of the national committee for the next four years, believes that Mr. Underwood is the logical choice.

BODY OF DOCTOR

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—A coroner's jury at Clinton, Tenn., returned a verdict of accidental drowning in the case of Dr. Loren Dosey, whose body was found in the Tennessee river yesterday. Dr. Dosey and his wife, Dora, were on the way to Clayton, the county seat of St. Louis county, where Mrs. Dosey is charged with having bigamously married William J. Bryan, of whose murder she was acquitted before the Doseys went south. It was at first thought that Dosey had killed himself.

LAWN PARTY AT HIGHLAND CLUB

The Salem Cadet band will give the concert in connection with the lawns party at the Highland Club grounds this evening. The committee in charge of the affair held a meeting last night and completed arrangements for the party. The grounds are beautifully decorated for the affair and a number of incandescent lights of different colors have been arranged at intervals around the grounds. What a large number will attend is evident by the great demand for tables, practically all being engaged. After the concert a hurdy-gurdy party will be held in the hall of the club house and dancing will be enjoyed.

The Independent Workman's Circle of America, under the auspices of which the boycott was started, elected these officers last night: President, Mrs. Annie Finkelstein; vice-president, Mrs. Jennie Offin; financial secretary, Mrs. P. F. Klayman; recording secretary, Mrs. Jennie Rubin; treasurer, Mrs. Flora Elson.

We most sincerely thank all those whose sympathy whether expressed in words, acts of kindness or beautiful floral tributes proved such a consolation to us in our sad bereavement of the death of our beloved one, Mrs. Josephine McCabe-Quigley.

AT 91 MARKET ST.

SPRINGFIELD, June 20.—Mrs. Arthur Cross, aged 29, of 34 Waite street, killed herself and three small children by turning on illuminating gas in the front room of her home about 6 o'clock last night.

She was found by her husband when he returned from his work in Somers, Conn., at 7, lying on the parlor floor. Her twin daughters, Mildred and Margery, aged 5, and son, Vinton, were lying on the sofa. All four were dead.

Mrs. Cross left a note on a table stating she was tired of life as she was suffering from an incurable malady, and that she committed the deed because she did not wish to be a burden to her husband longer. The three children, she stated, she was taking with her because they were her favorites in her family of six and she could not leave them behind her without a mother.

Arthur Cross, who is about 30, is a carpenter who has been a resident of Springfield for many years. He married his wife 11 years ago. Both are well known in Athol, from which place Mr. Cross came originally. Mr. Cross said last night that while his wife had been subject to frequent spells of melancholia, her condition up to this time had not warranted a watch being placed upon her. Mr. Cross left for his work at 6 yesterday morning and his wife was in her usual good spirits at his departure.

TAKES UP HIS ABODE AT HIS SUMMER COTTAGE

NEW YORK, June 20.—Governor Woodrow Wilson left here today for his cottage at Scargitt, N. J., where he expects to remain until after the Ball more convention. His plans, however, include a trip to Trenton next Tuesday, this being the weekly "governor day" at the state capital. A private line to the convention hall will be installed at the governor's cottage at Scargitt within the next few days.
